FCC Inquiry Future Fades In Dissension

Several Deny Any Misconduct, Want Specific Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dissension within a House subcommittee left in doubt today the future course of its hearings on allegations of improper conduct against five members of the Federal Communications Commission.

Several of the FCC commissioners, denying any misconduct or impropriety, asked for more specific charges.

The investigation involves allegations by the subcommittee staff that five of the FCC's seven members improperly accepted favors from the broadcasting industry; they are charged with regulating.

Several subcommittee members supported the protesting commissioners in a hearing marked by wrangling over procedure. One member, Rep. Moss (D-Calif.), described the argument as almost a "filibuster."

Focus of the wrangling was the manner in which subcommittee counsel Bernard Schwartz questioned FCC Chairman John C. DeLoach.

At the end of the day, Rep. Moulder (D-Mo.), subcommittee chairman, told reporters the subcommittee would meet for three days next week, beginning Monday, with the FCC still under inquiry.

Before that, however, the subcommittee will hold a closed-door session Friday, Moulder said he assumed it would go into the question of specific charges.

'Dag' Offers Weapon Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—Dag Hammarskjöld urged the West today to split up its disarmament package in an effort "to get somewhere" with Russia.

The U. N. secretary general also announced he has been invited to visit Moscow and he "definitely would make an attempt to go to the Soviet capital next month."

He indicated at a news conference that outer space is becoming an increasing concern of the world organization. He declared that the problem is of a "special character" and could be treated separately at a special international conference under U. N. auspices.

Bing Crosby, Kathy Expect Stork Arrival Next August

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Bing Crosby was bursting with pride today with the news that he will become a father for the fifth time.

Kathy Grant, the Texas beauty whom Crosby married last October, disclosed yesterday that she is expecting. She was radiant as she made known that the baby is expected in mid-August. She said that either a boy or a girl would be welcome, just so the baby is healthy.

The baby will be Miss Grant's first but the 34-year-old Crosby's fifth. He has four grown boys, Gary, Dennis, Phillip and Lind, who will study on the Columbia Studio lot, where she is under contract.

Jobless Pay Boost Urged By Kennedy

Legislation To Be Offered; Also Would Extend Coverage

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) planned today to introduce legislation to increase unemployment compensation payments and extend coverage of the program.

Kennedy said the bill was designed to bring improvements which President Eisenhower has urged the states to make. He said not one state has done so.

Legislation is needed now, he said, because "unemployment has passed the four million mark and may well reach five million in the near future."

Public Works Plan

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) has announced he is drafting a bill to set up a public works administration similar to that of the 1930s. It's needed to avert "a catastrophe to our economy," he said.

Under Gore's proposals, the federal government would provide half a billion dollars for state, county and local public works projects which would use workers on the jobless rolls. Federal funds would pay 50 per cent of the project's cost.

Set Up Requirements

Kennedy's bill would set up federal requirements for many aspects of the unemployment compensation program now left to state determination. It would:

1. Provide for a benefit period of 39 weeks instead of the 26 weeks suggested to the states by Eisenhower. The period now varies greatly from state to state.
2. Fix maximum weekly benefit payments at two thirds of a state's average weekly wage. Benefits now average only a third of lost wages, Kennedy said.
3. Extend coverage to all firms employing one or more persons. Present law covers those with four or more employees.

Firing Next Month Seen As Unlikely

Committed To Fire Moon Into Orbit In Geophysical Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy, studying the remains of two Vanguard rockets that failed, was uncertain today whether it could orbit a fully instrumented earth satellite on schedule next month.

Instead, Navy spokesmen were talking about doing it sometime within the International Geophysical Year. That is their basic commitment. The IGY, a worldwide cooperative research effort, will end Dec. 31.

Meanwhile, it was learned the Air Force has told the Defense Department it believes it could launch a thousand-pound space vehicle by next June. The Air Force would use its Thor intermediate range ballistic missile for such a launching.

Earlier this week, Army scientists—who have launched this country's only successfully orbiting earth satellite—were reporting to send aloft an instrument-laden vehicle weighing up to 700 pounds. This big satellite, proposed for firing before the end of the year, would be intended to gather data for building a space station.

Project Vanguard headquarters at the Naval Research Laboratory gave a preliminary explanation of yesterday's second Vanguard failure.

It said the 72-foot, 11-ton Vanguard, carrying a six-inch test satellite, took off "normally" from Cape Canaveral, Fla. For 57 seconds everything was fine.

"Between the 57th and 60th seconds after takeoff, small irregularities occurred in the first-stage engine control system. After the fourth second a failure in the control system caused the engine to deflect far to the right, and the resultant abnormally high forces caused the rocket to break in the middle."

The test range safety officer then pushed a button and the whole rocket was destroyed at about 20,000 feet. Some parts fell into the Atlantic but others dropped to the grassy shore.

Two more such tests are scheduled before the main event—an attempt to hurl a 20-inch man-made moon into an orbit around the globe. The Navy promised to do this in March but that no longer is definite.

Soviet Might Want Break In Cold War

U.S. Keeps Path Open On Talks At Summit; Hopes For Arms Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials are looking into the possibility that the Soviet Union wants a breathing spell in the cold war badly enough to make some limited disarmament agreements.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles are working on a prompt reply to Premier Nikolai Bulganin's note of last Sunday about summit conference issues. They intend to keep the way open for a possible meeting.

Explore Possibilities

One aim reportedly is to explore all the possibilities of agreement which may be desired by the Soviet Union and acceptable to the West—in spite of the lack of encouragement which Eisenhower found in the latest message from Moscow.

The new Soviet ambassador, Mikhail A. Menshikov, is due here late today.

Confers For Hour

Eisenhower conferred for an hour with Dulles and Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, the U.S. envoy to Moscow, who came home 10 days ago for consultations. Thompson gave the President his estimate of the present situation in Russia and the possibilities of Soviet interest in easing off the cold war. Then Dulles talked with Eisenhower for an additional 56.7. The council said that one hour.

The National Safety Council, which announced the figures, said the all-accident death rate of 55.8 per 100,000 population was the lowest on record. The previous low was 55.9 in 1954.

The number killed in accidents last year compared with 94,750 in 1956 when the death rate was 56.7. The council said that one hour.

Of every 18 persons in the country suffered a disabling injury last year, the council said.

Motor vehicle accidents, which accounted for 38,500 deaths last year, retained their traditional place as the leading cause of death. The 1956 toll was 39,628, or 3 per cent higher.

Deaths in home and work accidents declined from the 1956 level. Home accidents accounted for 27,500 and work accidents 14,200.

Mishaps Cost U.S. 12 Billion In Past Year

CHICAGO (AP)—Accidents in the United States last year killed 95,000 persons and injured 9½ million others and resulted in an economic loss of nearly 12 billion dollars.

The National Safety Council, which announced the figures, said the all-accident death rate of 55.8 per 100,000 population was the lowest on record. The previous low was 55.9 in 1954.

Ash Distribution In Evening Gets Pope's Approval

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII has given permission for evening distribution of ashes Wednesday in Roman Catholic churches that hold evening celebration of the Mass.

Ash Wednesday, which opens the 40-day period of Lent, falls this year on Feb. 19.

In Roman Catholic churches, foreheads are marked with ashes on that day to signify the mortality of man. Previously the distribution of ashes has been in the morning, before the start of the day's principal Mass.

The Vatican press office said that bishops in various parts of the world had requested approval of evening distribution especially for the benefit of working people.

Lawyer Held For Shooting Wife's Friend

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A young wife of a middle-aged lawyer argued with him, left home, picked up a friend at a bar and shortly thereafter saw her husband pump five shots into the man friend in a plush motel room early this morning.

The slaying victim was David LaPoint Black, 23, a 200-pound unemployed ex-Marine.

Walter C. Wiebusch, 42, former assistant district attorney, talked freely with reporters and officers about his slaying of Black.

The wife, a pretty brunette, sobbed at police station and declared emotionally: "I'll stick with him through this, if he'll have me."

Police found the body of Black fully clothed, beside a bed in a swank motel. He had been shot five times.

"I was leaving him for good. We couldn't get along," she told reporters, not explaining further. Wiebusch was charged, then released without bond. Under Texas' unwritten law, juries are reluctant to convict a man who kills to preserve his marriage.

Blaze Razes High School

CLINTON, Mass. (INS)—A spectacular, general alarm fire, which roared out of control for three hours, today destroyed the Clinton High School. Loss was set at $350,000.

Only the shell of the 75-year-old, three-story red brick building remained standing when firefighters managed to bring the flames under control.

The fire broke out in the basement section of the old building, which had been partially converted to classroom and activity space because of a lack of room.

It was discovered by a passing motorist who noticed a glow in front of the school building and saw smoke seeping from another.

Street Lighting Issue

MOUNDSVILLE (AP)—Citizens' ment section of the old building of Moundsville will vote Tuesday in a special local election to raise money for a street lighting program.

The levy would add one-cent per front foot to the taxes local property owners pay to the city.

Publishers Urge News Ban Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. today called for congressional action "to preserve for the people their right to know what their public servants are doing."

The ANPA endorsed proposed legislation that would prevent government officials from using the language of a 1789 law dealing with the handling of records to give them the blanket right to withhold information to which the public is entitled.

Similar Views

Similar views were expressed in prepared testimony by James S. Pope of Louisville, Ky., representing the Southern Newspaper Publishers Assn., and by Clark Mollenhoff of Washington, speaking for the professional journalists' fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi.

Pope, executive editor of the Courier Journal and Louisville Times, said people in a democracy must have access to information so they can govern themselves properly. He said there should be more "top public" and less top secret, government information.

Should Insist On Rights

Mollenhoff, Washington correspondent for Cowles publications, said Congress should "stop being a third-rate division of government and insist on the right to write the laws and have them properly administered."

The legislation being considered by the committee would add a line to the law specifically barring its use as authority for withholding information.

Couple Weds Different Day

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Washington coed and an Air Force lieutenant in Japan, married by proxy via overseas telephone, won't be able to celebrate their anniversary the same day.

It was 4 p. m. Wednesday when 18-year-old Phyllis Alpert said her vows into the phone in the chambers of Municipal Judge Edward A. Beard.

But, because of the 14-hour time difference between here and Japan, it was 6 a. m. Thursday at Misawa Air Force Base when Lt. Lawrence Eigt. 27, voiced his "I do."

Fare Hike Asked For 25 Airlines

WASHINGTON (AP)—Passenger tickets on 25 of the nation's airlines may cost more beginning Monday.

The 25 lines have asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to authorize a four per cent fare increase, plus an added $1 service charge for each ticket, effective Feb. 10. The board previously said it would grant such an interim boost while it studies airline petitions for fare increases ranging from 12 to 29 per cent.

Given Costly Gyroscope Company Comes To Aid Of Rocket Hobbyist, 15

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A lad Richard by Robert L. Luban, Phil, with a persuasive pen and an eye for a job, has won a $15,000 prize today for 15-year-old Richard Harkness. It was a big step toward the world of tomorrow.

Last August, the Springer-Ju, has been Richard's hobby since he was 10. He's already designed a model rocket guidance system, selective parachute ejection system, but he lacked money—a matter of $1,000 for a gyroscope, centered around a radio-orbiter, the basic control element of a weather transmitting system.

So far the rocket, a maze of 60 Jan. 11, 1958, was 2,779,000—by a 69-cent camera rigged to take an increase of almost 400,000 over the previous weekly high in January 1950.

Richard sat down and wrote a letter to Minneapolis-Honeywell has cost him only $15. Still in the spending week in 1957.

Regulator Co., manufacturers of drawing board stage is a six-foot automatic flight control system. Job. Richard plans to launch it over the world of tomorrow.

Honeywell found a gyroscope of with solid fuel, and if all goes surd unemployment in the week ended Jan. 4, 1958, was 2,779,000—by a 69-cent camera rigged to take an increase of almost 400,000 over the previous weekly high in January 1950.

Today, the gyroscope, in perfect pictures, will split off and parachute back to earth.

Nasser Eyes Dictatorship Over Yemen

CAIRO (AP)—President Nasser begins negotiations today to determine just how far his dictatorship over Egypt and Syria will extend over Yemen.

Yemeni Crown Prince Seif Islam el Badr, who is also premier of Yemen, brought instructions from his father to arrange membership in the United Arab Republic. The father, Imam Ahmed, is absolute ruler of the 4½ million persons in the undeveloped land on the Arabian Peninsula.

No Internal Power

The ailing, 65-year-old Imam is not expected to relinquish any internal power to Nasser, who picked earlier that other Arab nations would be welcome to federate with the republic. Federation would allow Arab kings to keep their thrones in the new union.

Yemen for some time has followed Egyptian-Syrian foreign policy and been linked with the other Arab nations in a joint military command. Federation presumably would formalize and extend these arrangements.

Sweeping Powers

El Badr arrived in time to hear Nasser outline the sweeping powers he will have as head of the U.A.R. in a speech to the Egyptian National Assembly. Nasser listed 17 major points of a "provisional" constitution providing for presidential appointment of a single legislature and executive councils for the "provinces" of Syria and Egypt, presumably an extension of Egypt's present single political party, which Nasser controls.

Boost In Funds Needed To Help Pay Idle Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unexpected increase in unemployment has brought a request from the administration for emergency funds to administer unemployment insurance laws.

The request was made to the House Appropriations Committee by Robert C. Goodwin, director of the Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security.

Goodwin sought extra funds for unemployment benefits for persons who remained on his schedule. House press secretary James C. Hagerty said the President still had agreed to join a group of South next week to try once more senators and House members at for some warm sunshine.

Toll Feared At 16 To 28 In Germany

Britain's Champion Soccer Team May Have Died In Crash

MUNICH, Germany (INS)—A two-engine British airliner crashed into a German village shortly after takeoff from Munich-Riem Airport today, killing between 16 and 28 persons.

Among the victims, it was feared, were members of the championship Manchester United soccer team and British sportswriters who covered the team's first game with the Yugoslavian Red Star team in Belgrade Wednesday.

Plunges After Takeoff

The chartered British European Airways plane plunged suddenly to earth a few moments after leaving the runway. It crashed into the village of Kirchtrudering near the airport.

Sixteen bodies were recovered from the wreckage in a short time. But many more persons were feared killed in the accident. Rescue squads hunted through the homes demolished by the plane.

17 Team Members

Aboard the plane were the 17 team members and their manager, 11 sportswriters, two officials of the Yugoslav Embassy in London, a Manchester businessman, a travel agency official and seven crewmen.

The identity of the victims was not immediately established.

The last serious plane accident in which soccer players were the victims occurred near Turin, Italy, in 1949. All the members of the Torino team were killed in that crash.

Jet Crashes Into Yard Of Dwelling

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP)—A jet fighter plane crashed into the front yard of a home today just after taking off from the airport of this city 35 miles north of Los Angeles.

The sheriff's substation said it had no report on casualties. The house itself was not damaged by the diving plane, according to first reports.

Deputies said they understood the pilot bailed out, but they were not sure whether his parachute opened.

Slayer's Plea Given Review

CHARLESTON (AP)—Despite added duties in connection with an annual session of the Legislature, Gov. Underwood is taking time these days to study the voluminous record of a criminal case.

He has before him a petition for clemency in the case of James Lee Burkhamer, 24-year-old Clarksburg man who is scheduled to die in the electric chair on Valentine's Day.

Underwood's office said he has been busy for several days going over the complete file in the case. Burkhamer pleaded guilty to the dairy products shop last night and strangled a 11-year-old boy, then forced another customer, a 12-year-old boy, to hand County Criminal Court imposed over his possessions—two pints of ice cream and 31 cents.

Ike Reviews Plan To Hold Culture Talks

Would Study New Methods For Living Together Peacefully

NEW YORK — President Dwight D. Eisenhower is expected to announce a plan for a series of cultural talks with the Soviet Union, aimed at promoting peace and understanding between the two nations. The talks would focus on new methods for living together peacefully, a theme that resonates with the current global climate. Eisenhower's administration has long been committed to international cooperation, and this initiative is seen as a significant step towards achieving that goal. The talks are expected to take place in the near future, with both sides showing a willingness to engage in dialogue.

Freeze In Florida Brings Reduction In Vacation Costs

AFL-CIO Acts Hit At Union Strife Causes

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—Plush vacations in Florida dropped within range of the average tourist this winter as resort hotel operators scraped for business made scarce by bad weather. Three freezes, wind storms and torrential rains added up to the worst season for tourists within a plan by Mayor Robert F. Wagner and the City Board of Education to curb crime in the city's nearly 600 public schools. In the bottom, was reached yesterday when the mercury plunged to 28. Swank hotels which formerly charged $50 a day per room and turned away takers have offered rates of $11 to $15 per person, sometimes including breakfast and dinner. Hotels placed ads in Northern newspapers offering the rare low prices, with extras. One promised that the hotel would pay for the wife's round trip by airplane if a couple would make a reservation for 10 days longer. The weather, which brings Florida a billion dollar a year tourist business, is blamed almost exclusively for the slowdown. Few think the national business slump has very much to do with it. Some, however, think the opening of swank gambling clubs in Havana, Cuba, only 200 miles south of here, are partly responsible.

New Violence Flares In Two N. Y. Schools

NEW YORK (P)—Violence flared anew in the city school system yesterday, with one school boy monitor being beaten and another stabbed. The assaults occurred in Manhattan and the Bronx. B47 Stratojet Reported Lost

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (P)—A six-engine B47 Stratojet bomber is missing and presumed lost with its three-man crew, this southern California base reported last night. The plane was reported to be in the area of San Miguel Island 43 miles off the coast of Santa Barbara, said Maj. Craig Powell, March AFB public information officer. The plane last reported itself over Santa Barbara at 5:55 p.m. The loss of a tree killed by the plane cannot be determined on a year income tax return, said the Internal Revenue Service. But if it is destroyed by a storm, lightning or some other natural happening, it can be deducted.

Some Debris Of Vanguard Rocket Found

WASH. (P)—A Vanguard rocket Wednesday exploded in the air, and some debris was found near the launch site, it was learned today. The rocket was launched from the Cape Canaveral launch complex. The explosion occurred shortly after liftoff. Debris was scattered over a large area. The cause of the explosion is still under investigation. The Vanguard rocket is a medium-range ballistic missile. It was developed by the U.S. Navy. The launch was part of a series of tests. The results of the tests will be used to improve the rocket's performance.

Have To Have Big Income: Loan Of Art Treasures Can Cut Taxes $100,000

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (P)—One nice way to save a whopping chunk on your income tax is to have a loan of income to start with and deduct the maximum $200,000 allowed him. Then he has an idea which the Internal Revenue Service has approved. It's an idea which already may be at work in some art museum you visit. For instance: You may see a picture adorned with the name of some individual and the information that the picture is on loan from him to the museum. This is what Mortimer does. He has some paintings worth a million dollars. He decides to let some public art gallery have the use of them for part of the year. Say that in his case it was a tenth of a year. It isn't a loan. He must deed the pictures to the gallery for a tenth of the year. He keeps them in his home for the other nine tenths. But for deeding the pictures to the gallery for a tenth of a year he can knock a tenth of their worth off his income tax for that year. Since they're worth a million dollars, that would be $100,000. That $100,000, added to the $200,000 Mortimer is deducting for charitable contributions, gives him a total, permitted deduction of $300,000, or 20 per cent of his million-dollar income. What happens next year? He can repeat the deal, giving the gallery an added tenth ownership of his pictures, and so on year after year until he has taken off as tax deduction the one million dollars the pictures were worth originally. At the end of that time the museum gets full possession of the pictures. Mortimer can't take them home any more or knock anything more off his tax for deeding the pictures to the gallery. The Internal Revenue Service doesn't give out information on how many rich people—with expensive paintings—are doing just this. But a number have done and are doing it. Suppose, instead of doing things this way, Mortimer willed his paintings to the museum. He couldn't take a dime off his income tax for that, since he'd be in possession of the pictures until he died. But, after he died and the museum got the pictures, the full value of them could be deducted from the tax on his estate.

GOP To Answer Speech By HST

WASHINGTON (P)—The Republican National Committee may pick presidential assistant Sherman Adams to answer former President Truman's expected attack on the Eisenhower administration. Florida's Cold Spell Appears To Be Ended

By The Associated Press
Florida's third damaging cold spell of the winter season appeared ended today as temperatures climbed to around normal levels in most areas.
The cold air which brought the freezing weather into Florida and other sections of the Southeast this week shifted eastward and warm breezes from the Gulf region swept northward, spreading rain over wide areas of the East. Temperatures were mostly 10 to 20 degrees higher in the Southeast than yesterday morning, with readings in the 40s and 50s. Miami's early morning mark of 50 compared with a below-freezing 28 degrees yesterday morning. Florida's cold weather has caused widespread damage to citrus and vegetable crops.
Wet weather prevailed in many sections from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast, while scattered showers persisted in the Pacific Northwest.

Rogers Pledges Support Of Md. Judgeship Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Rogers today pledged active support of long-stalled bills that would create more than 40 new federal judgeships.

Rogers, in an interview, clearly indicated he prefers adding the judges by a single measure rather than by individual bills, such as those passed by the Senate last August.

His stand brightened chances for omnibus judgeship bills which have been gathering dust in the House and Senate Judiciary Committees for more than a year.

The separate Senate bills would create one additional district judge for Maryland.

The two omnibus bills have these features: A new 4th circuit judge and one new judge for Maryland.

Reward Boosted For W. Va. Slayer

CLARKSBURG (AP) — A reward for information leading to the solution of the Milton J. Cohen murder here has been boosted a second time to $5,000.

Harrison County Prosecutor Robert B. Ziegler and attorney Daniel L. Louchery, who was retained by the Cohen family, made the announcement today.

The prominent Clarksburg merchant was mysteriously shot at his home here last Dec. 12 and died 24 hours later in a local hospital.

Irish Of Baltimore To Help Their Folks

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Irish of Baltimore, U.S.A., are going to say "Happy St. Patrick's Day" in a big way to the people of little Baltimore, Ireland.

The United Irish Societies of Baltimore here are collecting clothes to send to the folks in their namesake across the water, as a gesture of good will.

Used wearing apparel is being gathered at various places around the city and Saturday, March 15, designated "Baltimore, Ireland Day," will be the climax of the drive.

Shirts, suits, coats, dresses—things for grownups, teenagers and toddlers—will be weighed and prepared for shipment to the fishing and farming town in the Emerald Isle.

Some will be sent by air for delivery on St. Pat's Day, March 17. The rest will be shipped by boat.

The idea stemmed from a trip last year to Ireland by a local businessman, Leo McCormick. Several months ago he received a letter from one of the good folks he met in the town which lies on a point of the wind-swept southwestern shore of Ireland.

Mrs. Rita Downey, the post-mistress, asked for a few items of clothing "for the poor people about," especially rain wear for the children.

There are some 1,000 people in Baltimore and on neighboring islands, McCormick said.

McCormick emphasized this is primarily a good will gesture, not charity.

Throughout the years, he explained, people in the old Gaelic homeland have been sending souvenir items to friends and relatives in the States for St. Patrick's Day celebrations. The gifts of shamrocks and shilleighs have been one-way, and it's time to do a turn-about, McCormick said.

Irish organizations that are combining in sponsoring the program include the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, Hibernian Society and the Emerald Isle Club.

They hope to make the folks of little Baltimore feel "is a grand day to be alive—especially on St. Patrick's Day."

Employment Office Open On Holiday

The local office of the Maryland Department of Employment Security will remain open on Lincoln's birthday next Wednesday, February 12, according to Robert B. Kimble, executive director.

Kimble said the Employment Security office usually closes on this holiday but will remain open this year because of the recent increase in unemployment.

OUR COUNTRY
The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever—MORRIS.

A Handicap

SOME VENEZUELANs enjoying the fruits of the revolt against Perez Jimenez are now saying some harsh things about the United States for having dealt with his regime. And certain American observers appear to be taking up the theme. Among the latter are some who in the past have indicated that, for very practical reasons, it might be wise for us to recognize the Communist dictatorship which rules mainland China. The reasons are, of course, that the Reds are in firm, effective control of the country and there is no other way to deal with the hundreds of millions of Chinese except through them.

WELL, THESE SAME practical reasons led us to deal with the Venezuelan dictator, as they have guided us into working arrangements with other well-entrenched autocrats in Latin America and elsewhere. Most Latin American nations have not had a substantial tradition of democracy in government. This is particularly true of Venezuela. If we wished to pursue economic and defense goals of mutual benefit to all within the Western Hemisphere, we had no choice but to negotiate with the dictatorial governments so often in power in so many places. We could hardly have dealt with rebellious elements as an alternative. Even if they were identifiable, which usually is none too likely, they have seldom coalesced into an effective unit until the very eve of a revolt.

TO HAVE IGNORED the established rulers would have been to have endangered hemispheric solidarity and our own vital economic interests. Liberated Venezuelans must surely appreciate that their own future prospect is linked to that solidarity and to the successful development of our respective economic interests in the two great western continents. We are happy to deal with free governments whenever we can. But if we were to refuse all dealings with the many autocratic regimes that abound in the world, we would be gravely handicapping not only ourselves, but all the millions of free men who are served by our strength and security.

IT IS NOW possible to buy colorful Western saddles with built-in foam rubber seats. You won't be able to tell the dudes from the top hands without a program if the trend continues. Next thing you know TV gunmen will be using lace bandanas.

Potato Flakes

THOUGH Americans like to eat well, and do, they are not above complaining about what they have to pay for the privilege. It is often noted that, while food is more plentiful than ever before, supplying the table these days is a lot more expensive than it used to be. And so it is. But why? One excellent reason is that foods are subjected to much more processing than used to be the case. The emphasis is increasingly on making things easier for the housewife. Many preliminary steps in the preparation of food—and quite a few steps along the way—are taken by the processors. That leaves less to be done in the kitchen. But it also leaves more to be done by the family pocketbook. In 1957, as in the past few years, new varieties of so-called convenience foods were perfected. Potato flakes, reported to be a great improvement over other attempts to produce "instant" spuds that taste freshly mashed, will soon be on the market. So will a variety of fruit juice powders that make "fresh" juice when combined with water. When these and other new products become generally available, housewives will doubtless snap them up and give them kitchen shelf space. The point is that when the housewife buys things like that she is not buying merely food, but kitchen help. That is something to remember when the price of eating seems exorbitant.

SENATOR Fulbright's declaration that after five years of the Eisenhower administration the country has become "fat and immobile" leaves us wondering how we managed to live through it all.

Tempers Hot As FCC Hearing Proceeds

WASHINGTON — Behind the dais in the hearing room of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce there is a mural, the main feature of which is a flight of angels beneath the golden words, "On earth peace." It was the only peaceful item as the acrimonious hearing finally began into charges of misconduct on the part of a majority of the commissioners of the Federal Communications Commission.

The case of FCC Chairman John C. Doerfer was first on the agenda. The subcommittee on Legislative Oversight was beginning as inexorably as fate an examination of what Speaker Sam Rayburn had contemptuously called "fly-specked" scandal.

MINOR scandals in high places may not be to the Speaker's taste. His real objection is that such matters are likely to obscure more serious underlying charges. But they are to Washington's taste, and the hearing room was packed with reporters. FCC officials, representatives of the extensive broadcast lobby, and the plain curious. They were rewarded; Doerfer's blood was spilling almost visibly over the forest green carpet.

The oddly-named subcommittee was established with the Speaker's special blessing to look into charges that the powerful agencies which Congress set up to regulate transportation, communications, utilities and the like were too much under the thumb of the executive branch of the government, had opened up new fields of regulation beyond the intent of Congress, or had become subservient to the industries they were supposed to regulate. It was a fertile field of investigation and the subcommittee was well-financed.

CHAIRMAN Morgan Moulder selected a young New York University law professor, Bernard Schwartz, as counsel of his committee. Schwartz is young, brilliant, and zealous of public righteousness. He promptly dug into reports of peccadillos among FCC members, prepared a memorandum on the evidence he produced, and presented it to the committee.

It dealt with substantive matters, such as the fact that the FCC apparently judges cases on criteria which may vary from case to case. But among the charges was some involving what Schwartz deemed personal misconduct, such as the acceptance of favors from the communications industry and, in the case of Doerfer, of charging the government for expenses which he had already received from the industry.

Some members of the committee hit the ceiling. There was a high-powered effort to lock up the report and force the subcommittee on another track. Inevitably the report was slipped to the press and printed in detail. From then on the hearing which has now begun became certain. Congressmen who had been accused of an attempted whitewash were forced to give in. The officials who had been accused were forced to demand a hearing.

TEMPERS were hot when the hearing began. Doerfer, under understandable emotion, kept demanding to make a statement to answer what he called "innuendoes" in the press. He had to be gavelled down repeatedly.

Republican members kept breaking in with interruptions. To Chairman Moulder's annoyance, Representative John Bennett of Michigan was insistent until he read into the record a part of a Schwartz memorandum which was not in evidence.

It indicated that if charges against Chairman Doerfer proved true, he would be guilty of a felony. To the interest of the press, Bennett, therefore, made the Schwartz statement libel-proof.

THE HEARINGS are now committed along the present lines until their doubtless bitter conclusion. The FCC will be a violently shaken agency. The subcommittee and its staff may continue in a turmoil, which would prevent the high-level investigation which almost all observers believe is needed into the operation of the quasi-judicial agencies.

Not mentioned yet—and perhaps never will be—is the basic trouble of these vastly influential bodies. President Truman complained often that he was unable to attract men of the highest ability and character to government positions. The erosion of these qualities which began then has continued without letup during the Eisenhower years.

Today it is rare for an appointment to any of the regulatory commissions to go to a person of both deep experience in the field and of truly national standing.

U.S. Has Plans But No Firm Space Program

WASHINGTON — NEA — The United States government still does not have a firm program for future exploration of outer space.

This is perhaps the most significant fact to emerge from the Army's successful launching of its Jupiter-C missile and its 30-pound satellite Explorer.

Army, Navy and Air Force all have a number of completed plans on paper for space research projects. They have been submitted to Department of Defense for approval. Scientists have worked out all details. But organization of any advance research projects agency has been delayed.

Some time within the next few weeks it is expected that Defense Secretary Neil McElroy, working with President Eisenhower's personal science adviser, Dr. James T. Kilian, will decide which projects will be assigned to each of the services for development.

This allocation of projects will be submitted to President Eisenhower for final approval, and then to Congress for determination of policy and appropriation of the billions of dollars needed to finance research and construction. Only then will the U.S. conquest of space begin.

SERVICE speculation now centers around the possibility that the first firm development will be a reconnaissance satellite. Both Army and Air Force have submitted plans for its development.

Army design is understood to call for a 500-pound satellite which could transmit its information back to earth by television.

The Air Force version has been described as having a capsule which can be returned to earth with its films and other data.

The problem of photographic accuracy at the 50-to-100-mile elevations from which reconnaissance satellites would operate is said to be no obstacle. Some of the new telescopic cameras are described as being able to "pick up a barn door" at these ranges.

The second new development after the launching of other satellites may come in 1959 when the Air Force X-15 plane is testflown. This is one project that has been approved and its development is well along. The X-15 is a manned rocket plane.

It is being built to travel 100 miles into space at speeds of 4,000 miles an hour, then return to earth with its pilot.

THIS IS "THE U.S. entry in the next heat of the missile race with the Russians to see which nation can put a manned satellite into space orbit. So far, the Russians are ahead with their Sputnik II, still orbiting with its dead dog.

Beyond this, Maj. Gen. Bernard Schriever, head of the Air Force missile program, has revealed a three-stage program on which his service has completed planning. It is now awaiting Department of Defense approval to go ahead. The program would include:

1. Unmanned reconnaissance of the moon. The first stage would be a missile carrying a charge that could be exploded on the moon's surface and be visible from the earth.

The Russians are talking about landing remote-controlled, unmanned tanks on the moon's surface for exploration.

2. Unmanned reconnaissance of other planets in the earth's solar system, like Mars and Venus.

3. Manned satellites which can go around the moon and return to earth.

C. FIRM estimates have been given on how much time would be required to accomplish the several stages of this program.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK — An addition to the Where We Came In Department is a new column, the news. Willi Messerschmitt and Ernie Heinkel, who died last week, have been building bubble cars while the pressure was on. They returned, in tandem, to the design and manufacture of air-planes.

If you are thinking in terms of obsolete World War II Messerschmitt bombers and Heinkel fighters, disabuse yourselves. Willi designed and built, late in that war, the first production line jet plane and Ernie, way back there in 1938 (20 years is a long time in the plane business), put together the world's first turbo-jet plane. Airlines only recently have gotten around to using these and their ads speak of them as daring and new. They aren't. This time let us have the brains of Willi and Ernie on our side.

THE TAXI business must be good. There is an air-conditioned Chrysler, a four-speed Mercedes-Benz and a re-conditioned Rolls-Royce available, each a taxi on the streets of New York. And their rates are exactly the same as the rates for broken-down hacks reeking of old cigarettes and strewn with litter.

But Ollie Pino, of Barbadoes, is the fanciest taxi driver in New York. Wears a crimson hat with his name stitched on it, furnishes free cigarettes and daily papers, washes his cab inside and out twice a day, even if it is raining. "I have lived 44 years," he said the other afternoon, "all of them just wonderful. I love life and I love people and I've never been disillusioned. I get a grump every now and then or a haughty lady, but mostly people respond to a smile and happy talk."

YOU THINK cancer and heart disease are the big killers of mankind? Don't bet on it, you'd lose. Malaria is the wholesale killer. Ask your doctor if this seems improbable to you. And less is being done about quelling and curbing the major killer than about almost any other major ailment.

Eradicating mosquitoes here and there around the world is helpful, but not wide-spread enough to bring the disease down from its No. 1 position.

YOU SPEAK English well, of course, and either have mastered or have dabbled in one, two or three foreign languages. You feel like a world citizen, a person of cultivation. But the fact is that there are 49 major languages seldom heard and never studied in the United States and hundreds of millions of assorted human beings around the world use them commonly and regularly and wonder what all the shouting is about over the English language.

Africa, alone, has more than 20 languages and dialects and in your own time Africa is going to loom gigantic as a world force.

HAVE YOU been reading the adventures of Elizabeth Taylor in Soviet Russia? You should, because this pretty, if not exactly profound, young woman seems to me to be doing us enormous damage with her naive and sometimes downright dumb observations.

She reported, with great glee the other day, that at an embassy party her husband was asked by an Asian ambassador how they, the Mike Todds, had come to Russia.

"In our private plane," Mike replied.

"You have a private plane?" the Asian asked, stunned.

"Sure, doesn't everybody?" Mike retorted.

Miss Taylor considered this shatteringly funny. It probably set us back five years in world relations. Anyone who has traveled anywhere knows that we are less than beloved in many places in the world, and Communist places are not the only ones by any means.

Many of our allies in NATO take a dim view of the arrogance and manners of the visiting American. Todd's capricious and insulting answer to an Asian of embassy rank did nothing to heal this opinion.

IT IS LITTLE known but if, some day, you are overcome in a wave of nostalgia for the old and vanished sounds of New York, you can hire tapes which will reproduce them for you.

The jangle of trolleys, the roar and rattle of the El trains, the sidewalk games of children, now vanishing as new and alien cultures take over large areas of Manhattan, the cries of market men and women, pushcart dialogues and similar sounds are available.

Even the recdy and plaintive tunes of a hand organ, complete with chattering monkey. You can rent these tapes as you rent books from a library.

Pastel Mink Ghost Seen

WASHINGTON—Now we've got Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission up before Congressional investigators on the embarrassing charge of fudging on his expense account.

I hope, myself, he can prove he didn't. It is a tricky-track business, involving only a few hundred dollars, but still and all you can't forget that royal pastel mink coat. I doubt if Harry Truman even knew the White House typist who accepted it, but that pretty piece of fuzz had its political results.

So did the freezer boxes of several years ago. Numerous bigwigs accepted them as gifts from the manufacturer, who long since has gone out of business. The boxes themselves were clanky and not much good, but the politicians heretofore never have forgotten them.

THAT EXPLAINS why there was a standing-room-only crowd at the proceedings of the Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight during the ordeal of Commissioner Doerfer. He was an unhappy man.

Time and time again this gray-haired head of the government's office of control over all radio and television broadcasting tried to interrupt the witnesses building up the case against him. He protested that he'd already been tried in the newspapers and said that those under the Inquisition in the Middle Ages had suffered no more than himself.

In the corridor outside he told the same radio and TV—which must abide by the rulings of his commission—that he never had seen such an unfair operation as that of the committee headed by Representative Morgan M. Moulder. So we might as well begin at the beginning.

EVERYBODY, including the ies of six satellites to be launched by the Navy-Vanguard rocket. Each one was to carry different instruments.

There is still every intention to complete this program in spite of the Army's earlier launching of its Explorer Satellite. Army also has a second Jupiter-C on stand-by, which could be launched.

There is, however, no immediate project approved for launching U.S. satellites which will watch the Russian Sputnik II weight of 1,120 pounds.

Any rocket engines which the U.S. services may have under development—capable of developing thrust to lift a half-ton—are still so wrapped up in secrecy classifications they can't be talked about.

This is one reason why Dr. Wehrner von Braun of Army Ballistic Missiles Center still believes it may take the U.S. five years to catch up with the Russians in the weight-lifting contest.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK — A former boy evangelist has conquered Broadway in his first role. Lonnie Sattin, son of an itinerant Negro minister, is being hailed by critics for his surprise success in the musical, "Body Beautiful" in which he plays a professional boxer.

His dramatic, concert-trained voice steals the show. "I came up singing," said Lonnie. "I can't remember a time when I didn't sing. You know how it is with a minister's boy. You get put in a choir as soon as you can toddle."

A bright future as an entertainment star of the first magnitude now appears certain for Lonnie. But he worked hard to get where he is, and the prospect of quick fame now doesn't overwhelm him.

BEFORE undertaking any new venture, he prays long and earnestly. This is what he prays for: "I pray for happiness, not merely success. I ask God whether, if I am successful, I can handle it humbly and graciously. If not, I don't want it."

His childhood interests were theology and law but for a brief time he thought of becoming a prizefighter. Then he worked out with Honeysuckle Johnson.

"He clipped me a good one on the chin," said Lonnie, "and I decided right then in favor of theology."

Following the example of his father, a Church of God pastor, Lonnie toured the seaboard from New York to North Carolina as an evangelist.

After winning a singing contest sponsored by the National Freedom Day Association, Sattin gave a series of concerts that won attention. Soon he had to face a choice—to stay in the ministry or to seek a musical career. It took him four months to make up his mind.

"I HATED TO TURN my back on my father, who always had wanted me to follow in his footsteps," said Lonnie.

"My father knew the spiritual torment I was going through. I finally decided to make song my ministry when he told me, 'You have to live with yourself, son. You can't preach with a divided mind.'"

Lonnie, a star for Capitol Records, seasoned himself for several years as a hand singer and supper club entertainer before making his Broadway debut. He always included at least one religious song in his performances.

"I still want to help people spiritually," he said earnestly. "I want to inspire as well as entertain. Even singing in night clubs you can have some religious effect on people—people who may never go to church."

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—On the mezzanine floor of the Statler Hotel here stretches a series of conference rooms. When I climbed up there the other day I learned that a bizarre sequence of conferences was in progress. In one room was the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee. Next to it was the Finance Committee of the Republican National Committee. Around the corner was the Board of Directors of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and just beyond it a Democratic policy-making group.

The GOP Executive Committee was trying to decide how to spend money that hadn't yet been raised by the Finance Committee from the directors of the Chamber of Commerce to fight the Democrats.

Between sessions, the fascinatingly assorted conferees milled about the mezzanine, and it might have been hard to distinguish among them except that the Republicans had identifying cards pinned to them. Only two of the latter were unplaced, but they were identified by the sharper-eyed as Dwight David Eisenhower and Richard Milhous Nixon.

The members of the Republican National Committee were very democratic. They exchanged greetings with the chambermen, or chamberlains, as I suppose they should be called, and permitted the Democratic policy-makers to move among them without clamoring for segregation. It was an inspiring cross-section of America, although only the Democrats looked cross.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower, who arrived at 8:35 a. m., told the 250 GOP leaders that any party that could get up such enthusiasm by breakfast time was really jet propelled. Some of them did look a little shot, at that.

Vice President Nixon worked the later shift. He came for lunch. The national committeemen felt they couldn't top this for dinner so they just had themselves—plus food, of course.

Both the President and the Vice President got into the feeding room by devious means. The stairways and hallways were crowded with eager followers waiting to see them arrive, but they snuck in somehow without having to go through the crowd. This led a state chairman, whom I would watch very carefully if I were a member of the GOP hierarchy, to mutter:

"They used to look around for crowds like this to pass through. Now they go in by the back door."

I hope the disgruntled one is not getting ready to defect.

THE LEADERS were given briefings by most of the Administration's top brass, some of which were actually brief. GOP National Chairman Maude Aline confined himself to this vague statement:

"We are solvent—which is something the other party can't say."

He was vague about which other party he meant. Some of us thought he might have been referring to a party for a certain society group, which hasn't been paid for yet.

Britain Offered Substitute Plan

LONDON. — (INS) — Britain privately officials held there was less than a chance that the West German offer to buy $280,000,000 worth of arms during the next three years in lieu of helping pay support for the British Army of the Rhine. The Foreign Office declined official comment on the offer until it is received and studied. But little hope the proposal would be accepted. The British press was indignant. Basically, the Bonn Government would deposit $280,000,000 in advance for arms purchases over a three-year period.

Worker Feels She's Well Paid

By AILEEN SNODDY
NEA Staff Correspondent

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — (NEA) — After 13 years of helping to scrape $460,000 together to fight polio, Nancy Greene will get a dime for her service.

It won't be just any "little old" dime, as she might say in a charming southern drawl. This one will carry an aura of posh parties, white mink and cellophane-wrapped sports cars. And also reflect the smiles of polio-ridden youngsters aided by the Miami Birthday Ball through the years.

Today in the plush L'Aiglon supper club, Mrs. Robert Z. Greene will receive a silver, ebony-mounted "Roosevelt dime" from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis—the first time this award has gone to a local-level volunteer.

It will be a first and last event for the 300 "carefully culled" guests in Miami Beach. For this is the swan song of a gay high society party which mixes fun with fund-raising.

MRS. GREENE, wife of a New York industrialist, is a winter resident who takes her community responsibilities seriously. Asked in 1945 to "lend a hand" in the Miami March of Dimes campaign, she stepped in and has been up to her neck in polio fund-raising since.

"I did it for two reasons," she explained. "Like other women people who already made contributions to the country, I was stalling contributions to the polio scare to death for the children, drive" and for my own two nieces, then 7 and 9 years old, whom I was excited to see at the society auction. Then, too, I have never been on the society auction felt like a winter vacationist in block on half night 20 French Miami. Or that I had any less poodles up to $6,000, the sports community responsibility than cars, minks and other knick-year-round residents.

Raising money without conflict-exclusive Fifth Avenue shops looking with other March of Dimes like bargain basements.

On volunteer duty at Miami's Variety Children's Hospital, Mrs. Robert Z. Greene feeds Lucy Torres, 4-year-old polio victim.

In the last 11 years, about 25 of these poodles have found good homes and raised approximately $85,000 for the polio drive.

Which Mrs. Greene explains with, "I never knew anyone who would pay $3,000 or $4,000 for a dog unless he loved dogs."

Two of these poodles now romp about the Greene's three homes—in Miami Beach, Darien, Conn., and New York City. "Johnny," put it, "as a man who knew incidentally, brought the top auction price of $6,000 and was a gift ward."

Caught up in the whirl of ball plans, she clears her social calendar from November "until all the checks are in hand." She re-laxes in decorating her homes—"a different decor for each." And she is called a good cook by those who have been guests at her table.

Called a DYNAMO by many, Mrs. Greene lends a hand to many worthwhile projects. When swept into the Miami polio campaign, she also was active in the Red Cross, National Conference of Christians and Jews and the Miami Opera Guild.

She also is a trustee of the University of Miami Symphony Club, co-chairman of the Miami Guild Opera Ball and works with

Judge Edwin T. Dickerson Expires After Having Fall

BALTIMORE. — Judge Edwin T. Dickerson, who served 12 years on the Baltimore Supreme Bench, died yesterday at the age of 79.

He had suffered a fall 10 days ago and was taken to Union Memorial Hospital. Judge Dickerson was respected as Chief Judge Emory H. Niles and New York City. "Johnny," put it, "as a man who knew incidentally, brought the top auction price of $6,000 and was a gift ward."

He was a native of Dickerson, Montgomery County.

Lonaconing WSCS Plans Prayer Day

LONAICONING—The Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church met Monday evening with 15 members present. The call to worship was given by Mrs. Martha Grindler. Devotion was offered by Mrs. Annie Watson.

A World Day of Prayer service will be held on Friday, February 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

A workshop for presidents, vice presidents and secretaries will be held March 7. A luncheon will be held at the Lonaconing WSCS on Wednesday, March 12. The society is making plans to hold a supper in April.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Martha Grindler, Mrs. Jeanne Matthews and Mrs. Sara Spenner.

Meeting Day Changed
The regular meeting of the primary teachers and officers of First Presbyterian Church will be held Friday, February 14, at 7:30 p.m. instead of tomorrow.

It has been decided to have another soup and roll sale, and a luncheon on Tuesday, March 4. Proceeds from these sales are being donated to the fund for the purchase of new pews.

Lions Hear Talk
Deputy District Governor Clifford Crook of Frostburg spoke at the Lonaconing Lions Club Monday evening on the 1958 convention. Thirty-two members attended and Jesse Jacobs of the Frostburg Lions Club was a guest.

Nelson Keyes, president, appointed Thomas Holmes and F. Green to handle the next program.

Club To Meet
The Lonaconing Women's Club will meet Monday evening at 7:45 in the VFW home. Mrs. Kumi McIntyre, who came to Lonaconing several months ago from her native Japan, will give a talk.

A demonstration on "Dairy Foods in Your Menu" will be given by Mrs. Ruth Giese, nutrition chairman.

Brief Mention
Mrs. Ida Dawson, Jackson Street, has returned to her home from Muncie Hospital, Frostburg. The Lonaconing Business Men's Association will hold a dinner meeting Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at the VFW home.

Attends Session
KITZMILLER—Miss Karen Ruder of Kitzmiller attended the third session of the Young Republican Leadership Training School in Washington.

Scout Activities Mapped To Mark 58th Anniversary

KEYSER—Tri-Valley District has planned an eight-day observance of the 58th anniversary of the founding of Scouting, beginning tomorrow and running through Friday, February 14.

Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers will be encouraged to wear their uniforms to school, except those designed for physical education. Tomorrow evening a Senior Scout roller skating party will be held at the U.K.P. armory in Piedmont from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Explorer and Senior Girl Scout may invite a guest. Elmer Shaver and Thomas Riser will direct floor activities.

Saturday, troops of Keyser and the surrounding area will take over the Keyser city government through representatives elected at a general election. The Keyser Rotary Club will be host to a luncheon for the boy officials at the Rosemont Restaurant.

Judge Ernest A. See will discuss "A Scout's Civic Opportunity." A half-hour radio program over local stations will carry the story of Scouting during the past year. George McDowell, district chairman of camping and activities, will call upon outstanding boys Scouts during the past year. Paul Bowman Jr., Luke, will tell of his experiences at the Jubilee Jamboree in England and Charles Niess, McClellan, will discuss the rank of Eagle Scout. A trip to Philmont Ranch at Cimarron, N.M., will be described by Lonnie McDonald of Keyser and Ronald McDonald of McClellan. James Jean Raley, 17, daughter of Mr. Raley will sketch highlights of the National Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Tri-Towns area Scouts will hold a father-son dinner at 6 p.m. at Trinity Methodist Church in Piedmont. James Raley will have charge of the program.

Miss Eileen LaBute Chosen To Reign At Area Festival

JOHNSTOWN—Miss Eileen LaBute, 17-year-old senior at Berlin-Brothersvalley High School, Berlin, was named Pennsylvania's Queen Maple XI last night at Cochran Junior High School here.

Miss LaBute, daughter of Mrs. Clara LaBute of Pittsburgh, former resident of Berlin, was chosen from a field of 11 contestants to reign over the 11th annual Somerset County Maple Festival March 21-23 at Meyersdale.

Along with the queen honors conferred on her, she won the right to participate in the Pennsylvania Grocers' Association $1,000 scholarship contest with other state agricultural queens.

She also won a state senatorial scholarship, the Maple Festival educational award and numerous other gifts.

Miss LaBute is five feet, four inches tall, weighs about 100 pounds, and has light brown hair and green eyes. She resides with Mr. and Mrs. William Merrill of Berlin.

She sews articles of clothing to sell, and baby-sits to help pay for her keep at the Merrills.

Miss LaBute wants to be an air-line stewardess, likes music but not rock 'n' roll, and prefers semi-classical. She likes to sing, dance and read, and is interested in dramatics. Her entry in the talent section of contest was dramatic reading.

After being chosen queen she said, "I don't know what to say. I'm so thrilled, happy and thankful to everyone who helped me."

Runners-up who will be maids of honor to the queen are Sandra McClellan of Keyser, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Raley of Jennerstown, a senior at Jenner-Boswell-Jennerstown Joint High School, and Judith Carol Dinning, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dinning, Stoytown, a senior at Forbes Joint High School at Kantner.

Eight other contestants will be princesses in the queen's court during festival next month. The queen will be crowned March 21.

Auxiliary Meets

MT. SAVAGE—The Woman's Auxiliary of St. George's Episcopal Church met a recent evening in the parish house with 14 members attending. Mrs. Wilson Sweeney presided and Mrs. Arthur Uhl received the guest prize.

Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Pollock, Mrs. Wilson Sweeney and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham.

Patio Stuffed Peppers Tasty

Flavorful with black ripe olive drain. Cut olives in large pieces, these patio stuffed peppers and combine with remaining ingredients. Blend lightly. Serve the peppers with sliced tomatoes, buttered rye bread, warm cling peach pie and hot coffee.

Patio Stuffed Peppers
4 medium-sized green peppers
1/2 cup ripe olives
1 cup cooked rice
1 cup ground cooked lamb, veal or beef
1/4 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
Dash Tabasco sauce
Salt to taste
Wash peppers, remove tops, inner fibers and seeds. Place peppers in boiling salted water, remove from heat and allow to remain in the hot water in covered container 10 to 12 minutes; make the cheese stringy.

Use Allspice When Preparing Chicken

Clever cooks include 1/2 teaspoon whole allspice tied in a cheesecloth bag in the stewing kettle when preparing chicken stock, fricasse or good old-fashioned chicken and dumplings.

When using natural cheddar cheese in a sauce, grate it before adding so it will melt quickly; prolonged heating is likely to rennet it. 1 1/2 hours. Eight to 10 servings.

Beef, Pork In Meat Loaf

You'll find this easy meat-loaf recipe a welcome main-course suggestion. The ingredients are simply stirred together, turned into a loaf pan and baked. Minced garlic provides a savory accent for this ground-beef-and-pork loaf.

Savory Meat Loaf
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1 pound ground pork
1 10 1/2-ounce can tomato soup
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup minced celery
1/2 cup minced onions
1 small clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon minced parsley
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 teaspoon sage

Combine ingredients and turn into a 9 1/2-by-3 1/4-by-2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees Fahrenheit 1 1/2 hours. Eight to 10 servings.

Beef, Pork And Chicken Put On 'Best Buy' List

By The Associated Press
Beef, pork and chicken prices were reported somewhat lower in many areas this week and it is no surprise they are the most featured by supermarkets and corner grocery stores this weekend. Beef offerings range from the economy cuts such as chuck and plate through rib roast to sirloin and porterhouse steaks. Beef prices are down 4 to 10 cents a pound in many areas. Pork is off in the same general range, with loins and picnic hams prominently mentioned as bargains. Pricers were mostly only two to four cents a pound lower, although showing some increases, too.

Meat Prices To Drop
Lamb prices also are a bit lower with reductions more widely scattered. The Department of Agriculture says that sharply reduced lamb slaughter last fall makes an increased supply of lambs probable for both breeding and slaughter. This eventually will mean lower prices.

Most meat wholesale prices also were lower, which should mean generally cheaper meats at the retail level in the coming weeks.

Best buys among vegetables are potatoes, topped beets, collards and spinach. Good buys also may be found among chicory, onions, broccoli and kale.

Old cabbage from the fall crops is a good buy, while supplies of new cabbage are a little lighter. Sweet potatoes from Eastern and Southern fields are slightly more expensive, putting them in the fair to moderate class. Escarole and pascal celery are in the same category.

Higher prices generally prevail for eggplant, cucumbers, peppers, beans, cauliflower, peas, yellow, sweet corn and yellow or green squash.

Broiling Lobster

Broiling lobster? Serve it with a sauce made of butter, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Be sure to pour the sauce into small individual containers for individual dunking of the lobster meat!

Combination Drink

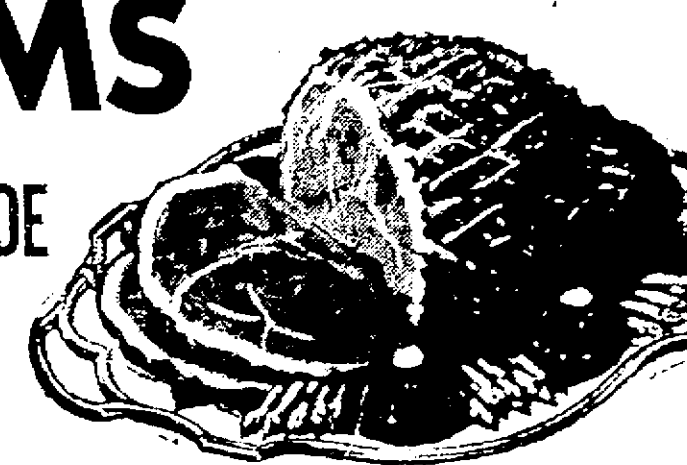

Orange juice, grape juice and sparkling water make a fine drink. Serve over ice cubes and garnish each glass with a slice of lemon or orange. Add a sprig of mint, too, if it's available.

Sleepy Thief

HONOLULU (AP) — The burglar who broke into a Honolulu doctor's office may be in for a long sleep. Dr. Thomas H. Maeda told police the thief took 1,000 sleeping pills.

NEW PINK DEODORANT BAR WITH COLD CREAM

Richest in cold cream for your beauty... most effective deodorant for your bath

Protects against dry skin! Now you no longer have to put up with harsh, drying, deodorant soaps to get the all-over protection you want. This new pink deodorant bar gives you more cold cream than any soap—leaves no drying soap film.

From head to toe, Praise's luxurious lather creams and cleans, smooths and soothes. It's like giving your whole body a "facial"!

Deodorant protection that won't rinse off! Only Praise contains new Formula 50—an exclusive deodorant that continues to protect against odor-causing bacteria for hours and hours after your bath. Gives you—and your family—the cleanest skin that's ever been.

Milder than the mildest baby soap! When your youngsters wash for meals, Praise removes hidden dirt and bacteria that soaps miss! Yet it's gentle enough for baby's sensitive skin. Cold cream plus deodorant—Praise is perfect for the whole family!

Satisfaction unconditionally guaranteed by Praise. Return, or your full purchase price refunded.

Much more than a soap... Praise begins where soap leaves off!

Try Waffle Desserts

Waffles are a new idea in desserts. Combined with ice cream, whipped cream or hard sauce, they are gaining new enthusiasts every day.

These are not just common waffles. There are chocolate nut, gingerbread, date, banana, cheese and even peanut butter waffles.

More than a dozen fancy waffle recipes and ways of serving them can be "discovered." One to serve ice cream and waffle sandwiches with peaches, straw-berries or blueberries.

Waffles sometimes stick to an electric waffle iron. Commonest cause is failure to sufficiently preheat the grids.

Try Turkey, Steak Style

Turkey "steak" is a treat for your family and your budget. Have your meat man cut cross steaks from the eviscerated frozen bird. Each steak will have both light and dark meat. After thawing, sprinkle turkey steaks on both sides with meat tenderizer; pierce with a sharp fork and let stand at room temperature 1 hour.

Broil as you would steaks of the same thickness and serve with a spicy cranberry sauce for a dinner that is very unusual, very good.

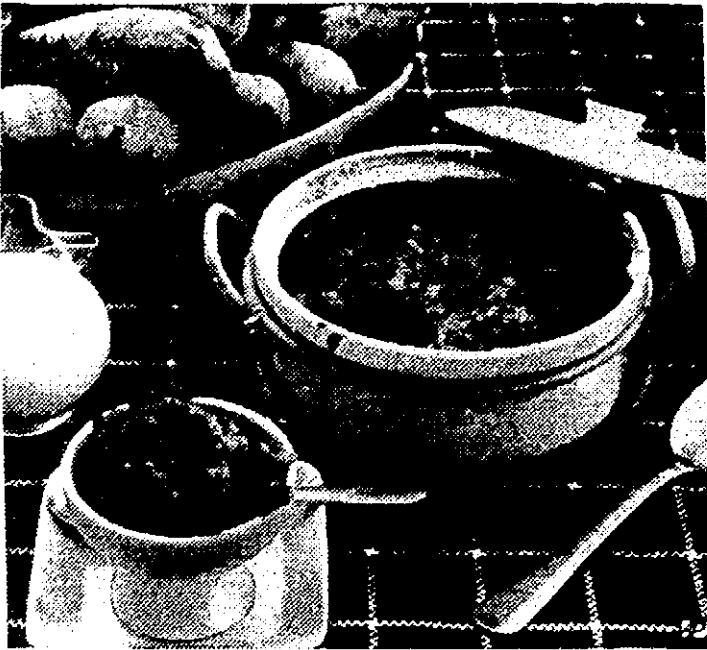

Winter Squash Pie

For a smooth switch that the whole family will enjoy, try substituting the same amount of the outer coating of nutmeg; it's delicious in many cakes and in your favorite recipe for pumpkin pie.

Mace Is Delicious

Mace is a spice made from the outer coating of nutmeg; it's delicious in many cakes and in your favorite recipe for pumpkin pie.

Truly American Pudding

SOUTHERNERS SPEAK WITH ENTHUSIASM of this regional favorite dessert, sweet potato pudding.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor
Sweet potato pudding, made hot water and drained), 1/2 cup from the grated raw vegetable, 1/2 cup dark corn syrup, 1/2 cup milk, 2 large eggs.

Method: Melt butter in a black iron skillet (9x2 inches); add potatoes as soon as they are grated. Stir sugar, cloves, cinnamon and allspice together thoroughly; stir at once into potatoes with raisins, syrup and milk. Beat eggs with rotary beater (hand or electric) until thick and pale colored; mix with potatoes. Stir over moderately low heat until hot through. Place pudding in moderate (375 degrees) oven; stir every 10 minutes and bake about 40 minutes. The grated potatoes should retain left over peas. Makes 4 servings.

Method: Melt butter in saucepan; add onion rings and drained mushrooms, reserving mushrooms. Cook over low heat, stirring often, until onions are golden. Add frozen peas. Add enough water to mushroom liquid to make 1/2 cup and pour in with salt and pepper. Bring to a boil, separating peas if necessary. Boil gently about 5 minutes or until peas are tender. Serve with pan juices or remove peas and other vegetables with slotted spoon and reduce pan liquid by boiling, then pour small amount

Custom also decrees that the pudding be baked in a black iron skillet because in that ware the mixture darkens and takes on a plum-pudding effect. We've baked the pudding in both an earthenware casserole and an iron skillet and again we're inclined to stick with tradition. You can use a black iron Dutch oven, rather than a skillet, if you double your recipe—but because this pan is deeper than a skillet, the texture will be slightly different.

Recipes for this pudding fall into several types. We've chosen the type that probably emanates from the recipe given in Mrs. S. R. Dull's "Southern Cooking," first published 30 years ago. We've made the pudding with both cane and dark corn syrup. The former gives a certain indefinable flavor but if you can't get it, you'll find the corn syrup satisfactory. Here in New York City, the only cane syrup we could find was some imported from Denmark in a charming barrel-shaped plastic container—a nice combination of the old and the new.

Grated Sweet Potato Pudding
Ingredients: 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 2 cups coarsely grated yam-type sweet potatoes, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves, 1/4 teaspoon ground cintheir coarse texture. Allow to stand at room temperature to cool somewhat so potatoes will absorb the small amount of syrup in skillet. Serve while still warm with thin or heavy cream. Or turn into an earthenware or glass container, cover and refrigerate about a week to develop flavors. To serve, reheat covered, over boiling water. Makes 4 rich sweet servings.

NOTE: Recipe may be doubled and baked in a black iron skillet (10x2 inches) or Dutch oven (10x3 inches) at the same temperature for the same length of time.

Baked Apples Offer Tasty Fruit Dessert

A bit of culinary ceremony from Merrie England that will be found comforting on a chilly night is regaled in Charles Baker's "Gentleman's Companion"—an exotic cookery book of hand-picked recipes collected from all over the world.

Arabian Nights Baked Apples is an unusual fruit dessert that will produce a becoming glow to your guests when served as a finale to either a plain or fancy meal. No consoling or comforting is necessary after consuming the Arabian Nights Baked Apples. To serve 8.

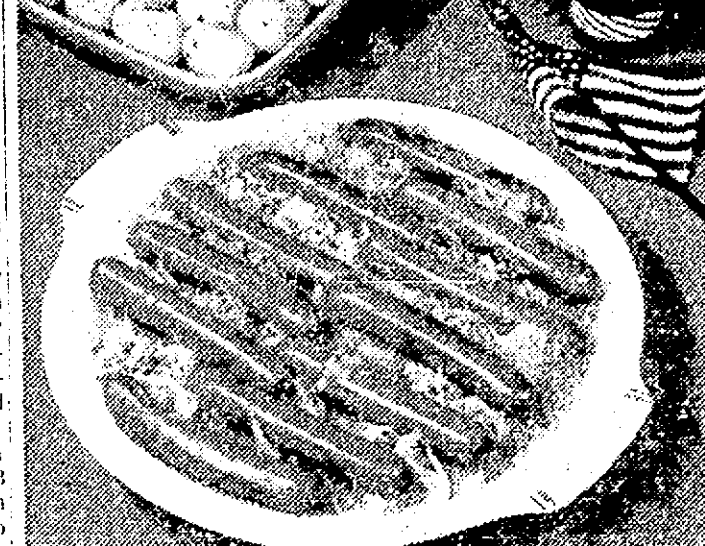

Core and remove peeling 1/2 way down the stem end of 3 large red tart apples. Place in kettle on rack and add 1/4 cup hot water. Stuff cavities with brown sugar and color peeled part with a drop of 2 of red vegetable coloring. Put a piece of orange peel in the water, put on lid and cook slowly until tender. Remove and let cool.

Mix the following ingredients together: 1/2 cup finely chopped fruit, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 cup raisins, 1/2 cup cinnamon and 2 teaspoons become an all-American favorite. Discriminating food shoppers know there's a good bit of difference in franks, and the safest guide in buying is the brand name on the package. Be sure to choose a brand that gives you select cuts of meat blended in an expert way with "just right" seasonings. Once home, store the franks in the refrigerator and use them within a few days.

Franks are fully cooked when you buy them, but most folks agree that the flavor is at its best when the franks are heated through. There are several different ways to heat franks and all give equally satisfactory results. They may be placed in simmering water for from 5 to 8 minutes. They may also be pan broiled or grilled in a small skillet. Or they may be browned in the broiler, placed in a saucepan for about 15 minutes. Add franks. Cover. Cook slowly about 20 minutes.

Note: Green pepper may be added.

Franks 'n' Kraut Satisfy Cold Weather Appetites

By MARTHA LOGAN

The birthdays of two of our country's foremost Presidents will be celebrated this month. If you're planning an observance in your own home, a good mealtime choice would be franks and sauerkraut. This combination brought to this country in early days has become an all-American favorite. Discriminating food shoppers know there's a good bit of difference in franks, and the safest guide in buying is the brand name on the package. Be sure to choose a brand that gives you select cuts of meat blended in an expert way with "just right" seasonings. Once home, store the franks in the refrigerator and use them within a few days.

Franks are fully cooked when you buy them, but most folks agree that the flavor is at its best when the franks are heated through. There are several different ways to heat franks and all give equally satisfactory results. They may be placed in simmering water for from 5 to 8 minutes. They may also be pan broiled or grilled in a small skillet. Or they may be browned in the broiler, placed in a saucepan for about 15 minutes. Add franks. Cover. Cook slowly about 20 minutes.

Sherry And Soup Blend In Sauce

Canned soups make excellent sauces for fish, sea foods and leftover meat and fowl, particularly when sherry is added to bring out and blend the various flavors.

There's a cream of curry soup, for instance, that is marvelous when shrimp or chicken is warmed in it. 2 tablespoons of nutty finor or sweet olonoso type sherry is added, and this piquant mixture is poured over rice or toast.

This is a perfect quick dinner, particularly when a tossed salad and glasses of chilled sherry are served with the dish. Lobster or shrimp bisque, which is served in 13 1/2-ounce cans, are successively in melted butter, cans and have the nut meats equally good.

Lime, Cheese Flavor Veal

Give veal chops a new look as well as a new taste by flavoring with lime juice and topping with Parmesan cheese. Here's how:

Limed Veal Chops Parmesan

4 veal chops
Bottled lime juice
Salt
Freshly ground pepper
Flour
Grated Parmesan cheese
1 beaten egg
2 teaspoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup dry white wine

Trim chops, brush with lime juice, sprinkle with salt and freshly ground pepper, then dip you want to crack walnuts or pecans are successively in melted butter, cans and have the nut meats equally good.

Finger Food

When you cook snap beans for small fry, cut off the ends but leave them whole. Nice, this way, for finger food!

Franks With Sauerkraut and Tomatoes

Yield: 4 to 5 servings

1 pound franks
3 cups cooked sauerkraut
2 cups cooked tomatoes
2 teaspoons sugar

Cook sauerkraut, tomatoes and sugar in a saucepan for about 15 minutes. Add franks. Cover. Cook slowly about 20 minutes.

Note: Green pepper may be added.

Frankly Different Sweets 'n Onions

Yield: 5 servings

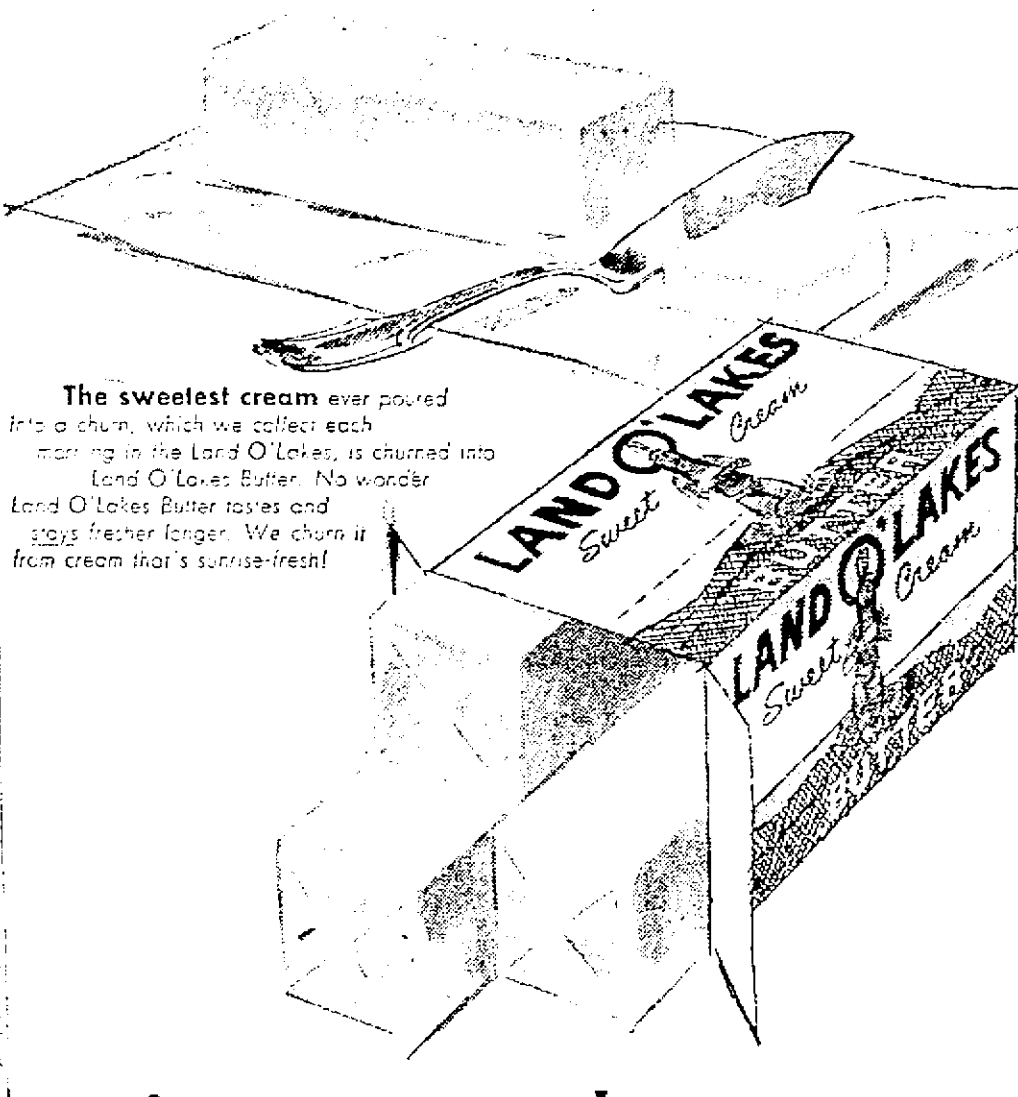

1 pound franks
1 cup sliced onions
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup orange juice
3 medium size, cooked sweet potatoes, sliced 1/2 inch thick

Cut franks in thirds cross-wise. Brown onions in butter. Stir in salt, pepper and orange juice. Add franks and sweet potatoes. Spoon some of the juice over potatoes. Cover. Cook 10 minutes or until hot.

Pork Chops For Stuffing

Use an orange-raisin stuffing when preparing stuffed pork chops. Use pork rib chops for stuffing and always have your meat retailer cut a pocket for the stuffing on the rib side of the chop. Made this way, the chops will tend to hold in the stuffing more securely during the cooking period.

Officers Capture Garrett Escapees

One Caught On Trying To Rob Store

Surrenders After Warning Shots Fired By Police Officials

Two of the three prisoners who escaped early Sunday morning from Garrett County jail were apprehended this morning in Preston County, W. Va.

One of the three, Earl R. Franklin, 32, of Johnson City, Tenn., was caught with a juvenile youth while in the act of robbing a Masontown, W. Va., store. The other, Arnold E. Sisler, 30, was picked up at the home of his father, Charles Sisler, near Aurora.

The three are being held in Preston County jail, Kingwood, pending possible action by West Virginia authorities before being returned to Garrett County.

State Police Assist Sheriff James Frantz of Garrett County said he was informed of the arrest of Franklin shortly after 2 a. m. today. The capture, he said, was made by Preston County Sheriff Charles S. Harrison, Deputy Sheriffs Frank D. Roberts and Darius Wiles, and West Virginia State Troopers J. E. Coleman and W. Z. Sparks of the Kingwood detachment.

Franklin and the youth were discovered in the Masontown store by the proprietor, who lives next door to his business establishment. When the police contingent arrived from nearby Kingwood, the store was surrounded, and Franklin was called on to surrender.

He and the youth made their way to the roof of the store in an attempt to escape custody, but surrendered after several warning shots by state troopers.

Information on Sisler Franklin's identity was established in preliminary questioning by the Preston County authorities, and Sheriff Frantz was notified of his pickup. During interrogation of the youth, it was learned that Sisler was at his father's home.

The West Virginia police group met Sheriff Frantz at Aurora and proceeded to the Sisler home near Aurora where the escaped prisoner surrendered when told the house was surrounded.

Sheriff Frantz said Sisler told him that he and Franklin walked 20 miles to Aurora after making their escape from Garrett County jail early Sunday morning. The sheriff said he doubted the veracity of the story in view of the frigid weather conditions in Garrett and Preston counties.

Claimed Store Robbery Sisler also told Sheriff Frantz that he and Franklin robbed a store in Aurora after arrival there, but this could not be checked out this morning.

The third escapee, Wayne E. Pigott, 43, of the Oakland area, is still at large. Sheriff Frantz said Sisler, Franklin and the youth were to be questioned further today, when Sheriff Frantz hoped to discover the details of how the escape was engineered.

The three escapees were being held for action of the Garrett County March grand jury. Franklin is charged with safe-cracking, resulting from the burglary of a $37,000 from a Friendsville store last July 29. Sisler is accused of forgery and Pigott of breaking and entering.

Warehouse Here Entered During Night

Two new breaking and entering have been reported to City Police, the most recent having occurred late last night or early this morning at a Henderson Avenue warehouse.

Employees at the Karp Brothers warehouse discovered the entry this morning after reporting to work. Entry, police said, was made by breaking a side window, after which the intruder reached in to unlock the window.

Employees of the restaurant supply firm were taking an inventory to discover if anything was missing.

Police are also investigating an entry that occurred late Tuesday night or early yesterday morning at Johnson Heights School.

Mrs. Grace Bolyard, manager of the school cafeteria, informed police that the intruder entered through an unlocked window and forced the door of the cafeteria. There was $3.96 missing from a cash box, Mrs. Bolyard said.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to get into the school office, police said.

City Police also report that somebody removed two fender skirts from a car owned by James H. Owens while it was parked in front of his home at 212 Maryland Avenue.

Incinerator Location Opposed By Fire Chief

The location of an incinerator being constructed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company was opposed this morning by Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker.

Chief Parker stated his objection in a letter to the railroad and the matter was taken up at an informal meeting this morning in the office of Mayor Roy W. Eves.

The case first developed in September of 1956 when Mayor Roy W. Eves wrote the railroad requesting that something be done to stop oil from getting into the sewage treatment plant which was under construction.

Parker Opposes Site Officials of the railroad replied that the matter would be straightened out before the sewage plant went into operation.

In March of 1957 the mayor was informed that the railroad was developing plans to construct an incinerator to burn the oil, thus keeping it out of the sewage plant.

Chief Parker this morning stated at the meeting that when he inspected the site of the incinerator at the request of the railroad, he was opposed to the location.

Chief Parker informed the railroad the location of the incinerator was entirely too close to several tanks holding volatile and flammable liquors, and that prevailing winds from the west would create a nuisance to home owners in this immediate vicinity.

The chief also pointed out that it is possible during transfer of these flammable liquids from tank cars to tank under certain atmospheric conditions fumes could be ignited from this incinerator.

It has been pointed out by the railroad that the tanks in question are not owned by the railroad, but are owned by a packing company.

Called By Mayor The meeting this morning was called by the mayor to assemble the facts in the case. It was attended by Mayor Eves, C. R. Nuzum, city engineer, Chief Parker, E. W. Conn, fire marshal for the B&O and E. M. Scherch, superintendent of the B&O backshops.

Mayor Eves pointed out at this morning's session that oil used for cleaning at the railroad had been dumped into the 60-inch sewer line on South Street and flows into the sewage treatment plant.

Gasoline service stations in this vicinity were contacted and other arrangements were made to dispose of their oil. The railroad then decided at this point to construct the incinerator to burn up its oil wastes.

Chief Parker said that several months ago he went to the railroad property at the request of a railroad engineer and a second site was selected.

At the conclusion of this morning's meeting it was decided the matter would be discussed further.

Drew Running For County Post

Harold L. Drew, Carlos, this morning filed his candidacy for nomination as county commissioner in the May primary.

Drew, a Republican, appeared to enter the race and deposit his filing fee with the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors in the Court House.

Others who have entered the Republican primary for county commissioner are W. A. Strother, this city, former tax collector; William A. Wilson, Midland, incumbent appointee to the position; Louis V. Shinnamon, LaVale, businessman, and Charles M. Hill, Frostburg, businessman.

Assault Case Before Jury In Local Court

Man Denies Having Seen Hagerstowner Who Placed Charge

The case against the 22-year-old Hagerstown man accused of assault with intent to rape a 32-year-old Hagerstown woman in her apartment there August 7 was scheduled to go to the jury in Allegany County Circuit Court this afternoon.

Final arguments were made this morning by O. Thomas Kaylor, Washington County state attorney, and Paul M. Fletcher, Allegany County state attorney, who represented the state.

For the defendant, William C. Kneisley Jr., the final pleas were made by Edward J. Ryan, this city, and Martin V. Bostetter, Hagerstown.

Defendant On Stand Kneisley was the last witness called by the defense counsel. He claimed he had never seen the prosecuting witness and had never laid his hands on her.

His lawyers introduced a picture taken of the defendant two weeks before the arrest when he said he weighed 235 pounds. Kneisley said after six months in jail he weighs 195 pounds.

Later in the morning when Det. Sgt. Grayson Wigfield testified for the state, there was considerable discussion on the size of the kitchen window through which the accused was to have climbed.

Judge Morgan C. Harris allowed as evidence the fact that Kneisley had been convicted in 1955 on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minor girls and had served time in the House of Correction.

Kneisley stated that upon arriving home, his father, William C. Kneisley Sr., berated him for coming in late. But the defendant told his father that "it is only 2 o'clock."

Evidence introduced yesterday set the time of the assault at about 3 a. m.

The final witness was Sgt. Wigfield who explained the physical details of the kitchen window and the yard outside the window.

Judge Harris told the jurors his instructions that the defendant faces one indictment which carries two counts.

One is assault with intent to commit rape, and the second is assault.

He pointed out intent is known only to the person accused of committing assault, and that the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt by facts that there was intention.

Four Verdicts Possible He also said four verdicts may be brought. One is guilty of assault with intent to commit rape. This would leave the death penalty or life sentence to the court's discretion.

The second, he added, is guilty of assault with intent to commit rape, without capital punishment. The third would be not guilty of assault with intent to commit rape, but guilty of assault.

The fourth would be not guilty of assault.

The extremes of the sentences in the three charges were also pointed out. The first verdict could mean death or life imprisonment, or not less than two years, or more than 20 years.

Wide Discretion The courts, he added, have wide discretion in the extent of the sentences in these cases.

In his closing arguments, Kaylor pointed out how three persons, the prosecuting witness, her eight-year-old daughter, and a neighbor, Mrs. Jacqueline Lester, all had seen the defendant on the night of the alleged incident.

His face, revealed by the bright lights of the apartment that were turned on, was "indelicately etched fifth majority."

The teacher pay bill has an effective date of June 1 with salaries to be hiked as of next fall and collections from the cigarette tax to begin July 1. The 3-cent State levy will be applied on top of any existing county levies.

Assembly Clears Deck For Tax Job

ANNAPOLIS — (AP) — The General Assembly, with a new pay raise for teachers and a 3-cent cigarette tax already on the books, had the decks cleared today for a raft of other spending and tax legislation.

Before receiving Gov. McKeldin's 386-million-dollar budget and his proposals to increase the sales and income taxes, legislators added 12 million dollars yesterday to the amount of State spending next year and moved a couple of other vetoed "money" bills closer to passage.

If this session follows the pattern of others in recent years, more bills calling for state expenditures can be expected.

Dramatic Pay Action Action on the teachers' pay raise was dramatic and swift. Before Gov. McKeldin could appear before the joint session of the two houses to deliver his budget message and make a final plea to uphold his veto of the teachers' pay bill, the Legislature had rammed it through.

The lop-sided votes in each house and the fact that only one member of his party stood by him showed the assembly was in no mood to argue over it. There was little debate as the House passed it 118-2 and sent it immediately to the senate. The Senate made it law by a vote of 17-2.

Voting against it were Dels. Culotta (R-Balto 3rd) and Bacharach (D-Balto 5th) and Sens. Turnbull (D-Balto County) and Dempsey (D-Balto 3rd).

Turned Blindness Turnbull, oddly enough, is the leader of the governor's party opposition in the Senate—the majority floor leader of 21 Senate Democrats and head of the Finance Committee which screens the budget and passes on all money bills. He said it was "fiscal and political blindness" to override the veto.

The bill, according to McKeldin, is already 2 million dollars shy of enough revenue to finance it although the cigarette tax alone figured to take care of it when it was initially passed last year.

This may now add 2 million to the 39 million dollar deficit currently appearing in Gov. McKeldin's budget. He has proposed 30 per cent increases in the State sales and income taxes to bridge this gap but has said it is not enough to take care of the extra amount in the teacher bill. Either budget cuts or revised revenue estimates will be necessary to solve the problem.

Work Next Week Finance committees of the two houses won't begin their department-by-department screening of the record spending bill until next week.

Meanwhile, the Legislature has moved halfway through overriding McKeldin's veto of two other bills—one to provide incentive awards ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 to State employees for meritorious service and the other to provide overtime compensation to State workers after 40 hours work in one week instead of 44. The exact cost of these bills is not known.

The Senate overrode his veto of the incentive award bill and sent it to the House for concurrence, and the House overrode the measure to liberalize overtime. Final action is pending on both.

Governor Fares Poorly Altogether, the governor fared poorly on his vetoes as the Assembly opened its 30-day session here. Five were enacted into law, 12 were sustained by one house or the other and complete action was deferred on seven others.

One of the major vetoes sustained would have required council approval before removing an exemption on the manufacturers machinery. Seventeen of the 29 senators voted to override McKeldin, but it was only a fifth majority.

The teacher pay bill has an effective date of June 1 with salaries to be hiked as of next fall and collections from the cigarette tax to begin July 1. The 3-cent State levy will be applied on top of any existing county levies.

Property Board
Considers Case

The Allegany County Board of Property Review this morning heard a State Roads Commission land acquisition case involving property on Route 36 at the outskirts of Corriagville.

The land is owned by Mrs. Grace Snyder and the state took a portion of it for the widening and relocating of Route 36 through that community.

James A. Avirett represented Mrs. Snyder. Testifying, besides Mrs. Snyder, was James A. Perrin, local realtor.

County Board Hears
Complaint On Water

Edgar Isner, who resides on Johnson Road, appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners Tuesday to complain of water from the roadway running across his property and damaging the foundation of his home.

He said he understood the county was going to run a drainage pipe across his property from the road to a creek nearby. Commissioners James Orr said that after a check of the property it was felt that the county could not enter onto private property for such a project.

Temple Latest Talk Of College Basketball World

Owls Swamp Duquesne In Marking Up 14th In Row

By HOWARD SIGMUND

NEW YORK—(INS)—Temple's high-flying Owls have reintroduced an old-fashioned bit to college basketball—the five-man team.

The prolific Owls, currently possessors of the nation's longest winning streak, scored their 14th straight victory of the season last night when they walloped Duquesne, 72 to 48.

It was a notable triumph for coach Harry Litwak's seventh-ranked Owls, because it demonstrated again that the Philadelphians aren't a one-man gang, but a talented combination of versatility.

Rodgers Stars Again

True, Guy Rodgers, 22-year-old senior and All-American candidate, must be regarded as the maestro when the Owls hoot their victory symphony. And the smooth, six-foot-tall playmaker and floor leader handled his "baton" well last night as he led the scoring with 25 points and contributed six assists.

But as has been the case all season—and Temple has a 15-2 record to show for it—Rodgers' teammates did their share of work.

Jay Norman hit for 13 points and chipped in 12 rebounds, while Mel Brodsky and Bill Kennedy each netted 10 points.

Rodgers, Norman, Brodsky and Kennedy are all averaging better than ten points a game.

The School Record

The Owls tied a school record for consecutive victories. Temple's National Invitation Championships of 1937-38 won 14 straight games and the 1953-54 team won its first 13 starts and there was a carry-over win from the 1954-55 season.

Duquesne was only in the game until Rodgers broke an 8-0 tie with a jump shot in the first half. The Owls led 33 to 24 at the intermission and then pulled away in the second half.

Sixth-ranked Oklahoma State defeated Tulsa, 84 to 36 and Bradley, the No. 8 team, bested Arizona, 71 to 58, but 16th-ranked Dayton had a rough time in beating Miami of Ohio, 64 to 62, in overtime.

Land's Basket Decides

A field goal by guard Don Lane—the only score in the extra period—provided the margin of victory. Lane's basket came midway in the overtime session.

Miami tied the score at 62-62 in the last 18 seconds of regulation. Wayne, the New York Knicks' Embury's field goal. Dayton had led from the start and was ahead 35 to 26 at the half.

Lane was the high scorer with 26 points. Embury had 25 for Miami.

It was the 17th win in 19 starts for the Flyers. One of the losses they were to Miami in a game Dec. 11 at Dayton.

Other scores included Syracuse 75, Army 63; Navy 91, Columbia 61; Penn State 71, Penn 70; Villanova 72, Seton Hall 64; Richmond 67, Georgetown 65; Ford-Cleary 50, Providence 32; Wagner 40, Niagara 48; Marquette 34, Creighton 48; Iowa 67, Loyola 50; Chicago 68, Eastern Kentucky 75; Louisville 62, Memphis State 76; Tennessee Tech 59.

Pair Young State Hurlers Become Birds

BALTIMORE—The Baltimore Orioles have announced the signing of two young Maryland pitchers to minor league contracts.

Signed yesterday were Paul Moore, 18, of Baltimore, and Howard Sprinkle, 19, of Perryville. Both will report for spring training at the club's minor league camp at Thomasville, Ga.

Moore, a graduate of Baltimore City College, was signed to a contract with Louisville of the American Assn. He is a 6-foot-1 right-handed pitcher. In three years at City College he had a record of 20 wins and 7 losses and averaged 11 strikeouts per game.

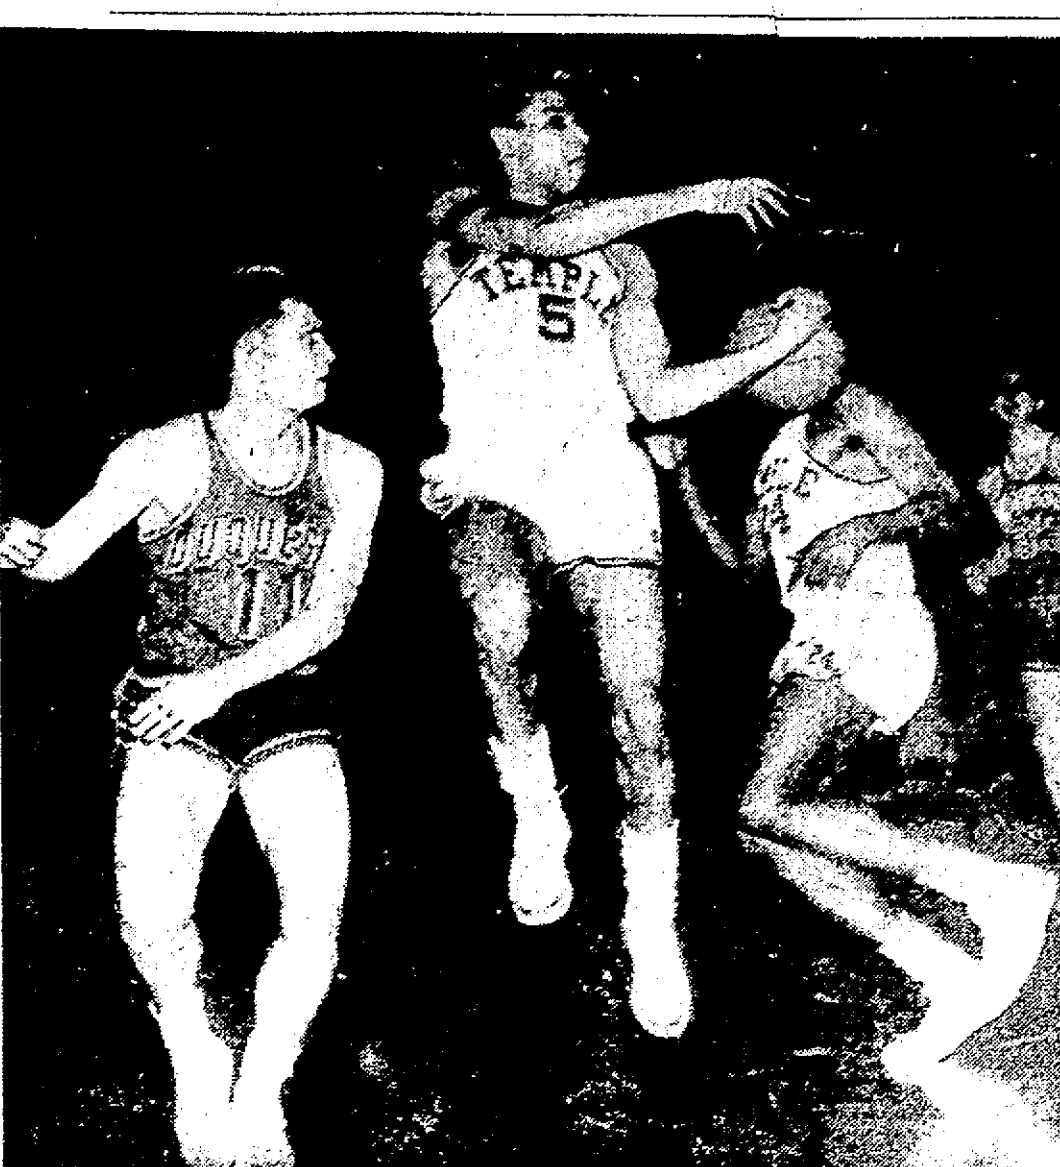

Moore played two seasons of amateur baseball and won 22 games, including 2 no-hitters. He was named the outstanding pitcher in the All-American Amateur Baseball Assn. Tournament in Johnstown, Pa. in 1956.

Sprinkle, 6-foot-3 and 210 pounds, pitched for the freshman team at Johns Hopkins University last year and had a 4-2 record. In the summer he pitched for Poplar Hill in the semi-pro Savannah League, winning 10 and losing five. His 160 strikeouts were tops in the league.

Aleo-Valley Seats Will Be Reserved

Seats will be reserved for tomorrow night's Western Maryland Interscholastic Basketball League contest between Allegany High and Valley at Detmold. The contest is at 8 o'clock.

Seats are still available and may be obtained by contacting Hal Greer, also of Marshall, the Valley High School official, collected 23 points to up his av. HO 3-6551. The contest is the last one at home for the Black Knights in the WMIL.

'HEADS-UP' BASKETBALL—Temple University's Guy Rodgers (15) does a fast over-the-shoulder pass to teammate Jay Norman (21) in second period play last night against Duquesne at Philadelphia and it looks as if

Norman is winding up wearing the ball for a head. Moving in too late for a block is Duquesne's Bill Ryan. Temple smothered the Dukes, 72-48, for its 14th straight win. Rodgers tallying 25 points. (AP Photofax)

Guy Rodgers, Marple Sets Score Record Baylor Rated In 109-67 Bobcat Victory Future Pros

NEW YORK—A professional basketball scout who has seen in action the nation's leading college players today tabbed Baylor and Guy Rodgers of Temple as "most likely" to make the grade in the National Basketball Assn. next season.

He also named Archie Dees of Indiana, Mike Farmer of San Francisco, and Guy Rodgers of Temple as "most likely" to make the grade in the National Basketball Assn. next season.

Dees, a 6-foot-7 senior, led the Hoosiers to a 20-2 record in the Big Ten. Rodgers, a 6-foot-7 senior, led the Owls to a 15-2 record in the Ivy League. Farmer, a 6-foot-7 senior, led the Spartans to a 15-2 record in the Big Ten. Rodgers, a 6-foot-7 senior, led the Owls to a 15-2 record in the Ivy League.

Tribe's Lemon Reports Elbow 'On The Mend'

LOS ANGELES—Cleveland right-hander Bob Lemon, disabled for nearly half of the 1957 season, reports that his sore right elbow is on the mend.

"I'm going to report at the Tucson training camp on opening day," Lemon said yesterday. "And the way my arm has come around, Dr. Daniel Levinthal thinks I can follow the regular routine, along with the rest of the pitchers."

"I probably won't hear down for awhile, but I hope to be ready when the pennant race gets under way in April."

Dr. Levinthal recently operated on the elbow, removing a calcium deposit.

The 37-year-old pitcher has been thrown since last July. His 1957 record was 6-11. It was his first losing season since 1946, when he joined the Indians and finished with a 4-5 mark. Lemon's overall record with Cleveland is 207-127. He has won 20 or more games in seven seasons.

Byrd Moves Up In Scoring Race

A 36-point performance carried Leo Byrd of Marshall into fourth place by the slimmest of margins among the leading major college individual basketball scorers.

Byrd went on his scoring rampage last night as Marshall defeated Miami of Ohio 96-89 and moved ahead of Bailey Howell of Mississippi State and Don Henry of Pitt. Byrd has a 26.31 point average for 16 games. Howell 26.23 for 18 contests and Hennon 26.24 for 17, according to figures furnished by the NCAA Service Bureau.

Byrd was contacted by Hal Greer, also of Marshall, the Valley High School official, collected 23 points to up his av. HO 3-6551. The contest is the last one at home for the Black Knights in the WMIL.

Rookies May Give Orioles Bat Strength

Another of a series on rookies

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK—Manager Paul Richards, on the hunt for batting power for his Baltimore Orioles, is keeping his fingers crossed in the hope that a pair of rookie swatters of minor league renown—outfielder Lennie Green and first baseman Jim Marshall—will make the grade.

Green is a 23-year-old demon center fielder who hasn't hit below .300 in any league in which he has played. Marshall is a long ball hitter who regularly hits 30 or more home runs in the minors but up to now has failed to make it in two tries with the Chicago White Sox.

Signed By Browns

Signed by the St. Louis Browns in 1952 out of Pershing High School in Detroit, Green was immediately called into service and had to wait two years for his chance in professional baseball. He was discharged in time to play 78 games in the Western League with Wichita in 1955, batting .302. In his second year in organized ball, and his first full season, his .311 mark with Columbus, Ga., was good enough to lead the Sally League.

Last year with Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League, Green batted .311 in 139 games, collecting 55 doubles, six triples and five home runs. He drove in 57 runs. A real speedster—he was a 10-second track man in high school—Green earned Manager Charley Matro's accolade as the "best center fielder in the league."

Marshall was the iron man of the Pacific Coast League with Vancouver. He was top man in games played, 168, in times at bat, 661, and in hits, 183. He walloped 37 doubles, six triples and 20 home runs to amass 327 total bases and drove in 102 runs on a .234 average. The big fellow was a late addition in the trade that sent Billy Goodman, Ray Moore and Tito Francona to the White Sox for Larry Doby and Jack Harshman.

Add Two Infielders

Bert Hamric, a 29-year-old outfielder, drafted from the Dodgers' Los Angeles Club last winter, may provide some of that elusive power. Hamric had 19 home runs and hit .291 with the Angels. Back in 1954 he hit .330 at St. Paul.

The Orioles have added a pair of infielders who appear to have an even chance to stick. Carl Peterson, a fine defensive shortstop, had a surprisingly good hitting year at Vancouver where he batted .293 in 154 games. His 183 hits and 38 doubles ranked second in the league. Bill Lajoie, a 23-year-old second baseman, batted .293 in 64 games with St. Paul. In 1956 he hit .327 at Texas City with 16 home runs and 64 runs batted in.

The only new pitchers are Charlie Beaman, Jim Archer and Ron Mueller. Beaman, up before was 12-10 at Vancouver. Archer was 11-6 at Knoxville and sported a 1.89 earned run average, the best in the Sally League. Mueller, only 19, is rated several years away.

Melvin Potomac Nab Church Wins

Two more games are on tap in the Central YMCA Sunday School Basketball League to-night with LaVale Methodist, opposing Grace Methodist at 5 o'clock and McKendree Methodist facing First EUB at 5:30 in the "Y" floor in First Flight hills.

Potomac Park and Melvin Methodist notched triumphs yesterday as Melvin edged St. Paul's Lutheran, 33-31, on a last-quarter rally and Potomac Park split First Baptist, 29-24. The wins were the second in as many starts for both quints.

DeLaGrange pumped in 13 points for Melvin Methodist as Ritchey tallied 14 for St. Paul's. Jones led Potomac Park with eight points while Moreland had eight for First Baptist.

Enter the hot stove league and play YOU'RE THE MANAGER (Seventh of a series)

By Ben Olan

Jack Tighe got some tough breaks in his first season as manager of the Detroit Tigers in 1957. The pitching of Frank Lary and Billy Hoel did not come up to expectations... neither did the hitting of Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline.

Still, Tighe managed to bring the Tigers home in fourth place.

JACK TIGHE

His contract was renewed even before the end of last season.

In the following situation Tighe's strategy was a big factor in beating the New York Yankees, slug it and then see whether you would have made the same maneuvers.

Result: C—Foytack walks McDougald intentionally. Aber is brought in to pitch to Kube. Casey Stengel then subs Andy Carey (R) for Kube. But Aber gets Andy to hit into a double play ending the inning. The Tigers pick up a run in the ninth and win 2-1 (May 15).

Gola, George Back In Form, Warriors Bag Sixth Straight

By The Associated Press

Tom Gola has shaken his Army rust and Jack George seems back in the form that made him one of the National Basketball Assn.'s top playmakers and floor generals two years ago.

Coupled with the always steady play of Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston, it's just another way of saying the Philadelphia Warriors are sure to give everyone a trouble for the remainder of the NBA season, including the playoffs.

Top Lakers, 112-102

The Warriors, with Gola and George doing a key job, whipped the Lakers in Minneapolis last night, 112-102 for their sixth straight victory.

During the stretch, they have moved from last in the NBA's Eastern Division to a point where they now trail second place Syracuse by only two games. Doubtful of even a playoff berth (top three teams in each division) a few weeks ago, the Warriors now have the looks of a team even Boston's hotshot Celtics may have trouble turning back in post-season play.

In regular season play, with only about 20 games left, the Celtics are too far in front, leading Philadelphia by 9½ games.

Celtics Rap Royals

The Celtics whipped Cincinnati for the second straight night, this time 116-89 at Boston Garden with Tommy Heinsohn leading a balanced attack with 18 points. But the continuation of the Warriors' streak was the big one, coming at a time when each victory is important.

The hapless Lakers, behind by 14 points at halftime, staged a furious rally and pulled within one point 33-31 late in the third period. The Warriors promptly fired three quick field goals, two by 16, is only one of a dozen contributed 16 points in all. Gola ners.

PGA Supervisor Harry Raynor says the flat, 6,434-yard, par-70 El Rio Country Club course is so easy that 72 holes of par golf isn't expected to win a dime—unless it rains.

Venturi, who wants to become the greatest golfer in the world, says he won't be satisfied just to shoot a good round.

"I want to know why," he explains, "low scores don't always mean the best golf. I want to know the things I did right, so I can do them again. I want to correct what was wrong."

Manlaughter Charge Faces Stoneham's Son

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — (INS)—Charles Horace "Pete" Stoneham, 30-year-old son of baseball magnate Horace Stoneham, faces a felony manslaughter charge as the result of the death of a woman in a traffic accident.

A complaint was filed in Justice Court yesterday by the District Attorney's office over the Tuesday night death of Mrs. Jennie Leach, 53, of Victoria, B.C. She was killed and her husband, William, 63, was badly hurt in a head-on collision with Stoneham.

Investigators said that Stoneham's car swerved over the center line. They also said that a drunkometer test showed an alcohol reading of .294. A reading of .15 is presumption of intoxication under Arizona law.

Leading their teams were Dot Wiegand, 159-339, Peaches: Mar-gerite Saunders, 134-361, Oranges: Marie Saunders 125 and Hazel Blonsky 351, Berries: Alice Paul, 125-341, Lemons.

Golden Bears Rap Wesleyan To Take Lead

By The Associated Press

Beating West Virginia Wesleyan at Montgomery is getting to be a habit with West Virginia Tech's basketball team.

The Golden Bears took a giant step toward their second straight State Conference title by racing to a 104-95 victory over the visiting Bobcats Wednesday.

Tech Takes Lead

The outcome was Wesleyan's first loss in 17 league games and enabled Tech now 15-0, to take over first place in the conference from the Bobcats.

Hank Ellis, coach at Wesleyan for eight seasons, said afterward that he never has been able to beat a Tech team at Montgomery.

Wesleyan holds about the same jinx over Tech on its home court at Buckhannon. The Bobcats have recorded four straight home decisions in regular season play against the Golden Bears, including one last year that snapped Tech's 18-game winning streak. The two teams will clash in a return match at Buckhannon on Feb. 15.

Meanwhile two conference games are on tap tonight with Bethany, 4-3 in the loop, at Fairmont State (12-4), and West Virginia (8-5) at Salem (4-13).

In non-league engagements, Morris Harrow 10-10 against all comers, plays at Marietta, Ohio, College, Shepherd (3-11) is at Shipensburg, Pa., and West Liberty (13-6) travels to Steubenville, Ohio.

Batters Beaten

West Virginia State pulled ahead of Alderson-Broadus in the late stages to down the Battlers, 92-78, in the only other Wednesday tilt.

The Yellow Jackets broke a 63-63 tie to move ahead to stay for their eighth victory in 13 league tilts. Willie Wallace scored 25 points and Orin Jenkins hit for 23 to lead the winners. Charley Huggins was high for A-B with 32.

Tech, playing before a capacity crowd, broke a 22-22 deadlock on Dick Cantley's one-handed move ahead for good. The Golden Bears held a 61-55 halftime edge. Wesleyan never got closer than to within three points in the second half.

Tech, leading at 90-84, with six minutes to play, slowed down the tempo and started playing a deliberate brand of ball. The Golden Bears scored their last 11 points at the foul line.

Free Throws Decide

Tech, outgassed, 38-36, cashed in at the foul line for the margin of victory. The Golden Bears canned 31 of 49 free throws as against Wesleyan's 20 of 28.

Kermit Gentry pitched in 23 points and Dick Russell and Cantley had 20 each to lead Tech. Gary Hess, who has just gotten over the measles, pumped in 23 points for Wesleyan and Jim McDonald hit for 25.

Wesleyan displayed a hot shooting eye from the field, sinking 49 per cent of its shots. The Golden Bears hit on 43 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Mathias Sweeps Oldtown, 60-48

Scoring more than half his team's goals, Don Moyer paced Mathias to a 60-48 basketball victory over Oldtown last night on the losers' hardwoods. Moyer poured in 14 goals and added a pair of free throws for 30 points. The win was the fifth in 16 games for Mathias while Oldtown dropped its ninth in 14 outings.

Mathias had won the opener against the Indians, 86-64. Cecil Nethers was the top scorer for Oldtown with 16 counters. The Mathias Jayvees also won the preliminary, beating the Oldtown A's, 35-35.

O'Brian Rates Betty White As Dull As Ever

Hit Parade Plans 'Mystery Tune' To Help Jump Rating

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — The Hit Parade hopes to pep up its ratings with a $200,000 "Mystery Tune" contest.

Peter Lawford's charm finally is being translated into high ratings. "The Thin Man" gets a fat 24 in the upcoming Nielsen report.

Arlene Francis did a "reading" of her projected night time NBC series, a "Pilot" film is next.

Betty White has been on TV for a good many years, casting in on a galvanized, insistent cuteness but never getting much in the way of a real soaring success.

Her ABC-TV filmed series this season was a bit duller than most shows on any air, so ABC decided to switch to a "live" variety format, and it arrived last night about as dull as it was before.

We have no idea why Miss White insists upon being a comedienne, except of course like the joke about the psychiatrist, she can't quit now — she's a star!

Last night Miss White had the help of Charles Coburn, Cornelia Wilde and Sterling Holloway, but none of them, nor her material, could keep her show from a level of enthusiastic emptiness, even Miss White's old ingenue-cuteness now having matured into matronly Westchesterly, comfortably efficient liberal performance but somehow not in the slightest equipped for the broad buffoonery suggested in her selected sketches.

The comedy ranged from the banal to a shrug, the ultimate being reached by squeezing venerable Charles Coburn into an Elvis Presley wig, guitar and wiggle.

It was hardly an event. Wagon Train had a weak one; Mark Stevens directed, not very well.

Lou Holtz, the best story teller of his era, is Jack Paar's guest "Tonight".

RCA is expected to reveal a big new TV-tape miracle shortly. Experts are convening today to look and marvel.

Some 32 Westerns are on TV now (network and syndicated) — and more are being made next fall.

NBC analyzed its own free-TV sports events and announced it saved a real sports fan $702 in tickets alone, never mind taking a friend.

If you think you see "Disneyland" repeating itself, it's only because its 52-week contracts call for 26 new shows and 26 repeats every year, which may be upped to 39 new ones and 13 warmovers next year.

James MacArthur, Helen Hayes' talented son, who made a big dent in one TV "Climax" performance in a play by Bob Dozier, Producer Bill Dozier's son, may repeat the format on Studio One in "The Lonely Stage," about an actress mother and her young son, again scripted by young Bob Dozier.

Ed Sullivan will salute the Boy Scouts Sun. Anna Magnani a week from same.

Critic Plugs O'Rourke For Quiz Winning

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK — My mother told me that Capt. Michael O'Rourke is "an intelligent, pleasant, well-mannered young man" and she hopes he wins a million dollars—or whatever it is you can win on nighttime Tie Tac Dough (NBC-TV, Thursdays).

Capt. O'Rourke has had mother plucked to the set for six or seven weeks. She'll be there tonight waiting to see if O'Rourke stays at $53,100 in his contest with Mrs. Pat Nance or slips to $26,600 or climbs to $79,000.

O'Rourke and I had a cup of coffee together the other day. While mother and I have disagreed on many things, we're in complete accord on the subject of O'Rourke. He's an intelligent, pleasant guy and I hope he wins a million bucks.

There's a lot of talk these days about TV quiz shows being primarily programs of personality or psychological interest while the matter of money is only secondary. Probably that sort of talk has been overdone. The money is the most important element — at least for the contestant, and certainly for O'Rourke.

"I've never had $5,000 in my hands," he said. "I don't know exactly what it means. And $50,000 — well, I only know that it would mean an awful lot to the O'Rourkes."

O'Rourke, 29, is a native of Denver and graduate of the University of Denver, class of 1951. After graduation he shipped to Korea as a second lieutenant and served with the 2nd Division — which means that he didn't have a ball.

He's now in the regular Army, meaning that the Army wants to keep him. He intends to stay. No matter how high he goes on Tie Tac Dough he wouldn't think of quitting the Army.

He's now assistant professor of military science and tactics at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. Although I didn't ask him, he's probably making about $6,000 a year, counting allowances.

From whatever he eventually wins, he hopes to salt away enough to educate his three children.

The first cast-iron bridge was built by two 14th Century British ironmasters. They were chiefly interested in proving the strength of their cast-iron wares.

School To Hold Fun Night Event

The Parent-Teacher Association of Northeast Elementary School will sponsor a Fun Night program tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the school.

Candy, cup cakes and other baked goods are to be sent to the school tomorrow morning.

The program is to include games, cartoons, a grab bag, fish bowl, refreshments, a cake walk, and a number of entertainment attractions.

The committee in charge is headed by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McClelland and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seibert, co-chairmen of the ways and means committee.

Expert Hunter Makes Hunt

MILWAUKEE (INS) — An excited woman called the Wisconsin Humane Society.

"Send somebody quick," she said. "There's a baby mouse on our front lawn."

The man asked her how she knew it was a mouse.

"My husband said so," she replied. "He ought to know. He's been hunting for 20 years."

The humane society man went out on the call. He found a woodchuck.

Educator Urges Fundamentals

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower called yesterday for a rigorous program of secondary school training with concentration on fundamentals and elimination of frills. Such a program is mandatory, he said, for successful college work and intelligent citizenship.

The president of Johns Hopkins University said "the real reason that most of the 200,000 of our North, who had passed 12 most talented young people are points, might have taken not going to college at all is that some action but chose to pass. They have been bored to death. Since neither East or West had developed slovenly thinking anything to bid Ivan became doing and learning habits. Your Horoscope

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1958

MARCH 21 to APRIL 21 (Aries)—Your Mars position now stresses confidence and optimism. We all have problems and "what's the use" attitude. You don't irritate others. A big smile and understanding will pay rewards.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus)—You are favored by Venus, the Moon and Uranus. A generous, productive period if you hold emotions under control and go calmly, efficiently, about your tasks.

MAY 21 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—Be patient with matters that tax the brain. Make your work hard mentally. The easier and calmer you manage and approach those with whom you deal or work, the smoother and better will be your results.

JUNE 21 to JULY 21 (Cancer)—Be judicious, different in style and method in handling things, and see if you don't enhance your work, wholeheartedly, make it more attractive to buyers, employer, the public and friends.

JULY 21 to AUGUST 21 (Leo)—Unleash your energy, but with more skill and activity, will be the trick, today. You are clever, know how to sell and talk. Use these gifts wisely. Plan your term today into a big time for benefits.

AUGUST 21 to SEPTEMBER 21 (Virgo)—Family, close friends and business associates can help you and you can help them now by sensible cooperation and doing for others. Artistic, originality and perseverance are effective standards.

SEPTEMBER 21 to OCTOBER 21 (Libra)—First, secure encouragement to give you stimulus to put over your activities in a big way are indicated today. Be polite, modest, family affairs, the arts and most professions are in first place, today.

OCTOBER 21 to NOVEMBER 21 (Scorpio)—Be adaptable, but not self-centered. There is much to be done now by all of us. We all have a share in our country's welfare and we must be militant to preserve peace and to benefit through God's commands.

NOVEMBER 21 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius)—Jupiter's warning now is to be careful with money matters, investments, all finances. Buy cautiously, be sure wisely. Plan day is fine for money affairs and matters pertaining to family.

DECEMBER 21 to JANUARY 21 (Capricorn)—Not all vibrations are helpful, now, but neither are they hindering. It is creative up to you and how you handle routine and added tasks that may perhaps arise. Good management can not you save.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 21 (Aquarius)—There are no "clouds" in your atmosphere and Uranus is in fine aspect. Be consistent, accurate, amiable and you will be pleased with the day's creativity. Family matters, and the arts and science are favored.

FEBRUARY 21 to MARCH 21 (Pisces)—Nephtalim is in advantageous position. Personal efforts and consistency will do much to add to your advantages.

— a fine period for cleverness, ingenuity, and family work.

YOU BORN TODAY are changeable, impulsive or unstable. You will change as you don't constantly switching from one occupation to another, not even seasons or the job time to show "true worth." Intellectuals, desire for knowledge and ability are strong in this sector. Keep working yourself for what you want. Do not let a tendency to be lackadaisical, to lack ambition, kindness and generosity are attributes. Don't permit unwelcome people to impose upon the kindness. It is important that you choose honorable and high principled persons as friends. Birth date: William Filmore, 13th President; Charles Dickens, famed novelist.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Salisbury Woman Admits Embezzlement Of $9,000 From Firm

SALISBURY, Md. — A 38-year-old mother of three, who pleaded guilty to getting more than $9,000 through embezzlement and forgery, was given a suspended sentence today.

Probation Officer Walter Price recommended against a prison sentence for Mrs. Shirley A. Venable, former hatchery firm secretary from Willards.

Warrants sworn out by an official of Walter H. Farlow & Son, Pittsville hatchery, charged her with forgery of 32 checks totaling $4,748 and embezzlement of $4,667.

Circuit Judge Rex A. Harrison imposed an indeterminate sentence in the Reformatory for Women not to exceed five years and suspended it on condition of good behavior.

Price, who investigated the case, told Judge Harrison the woman "apparently had received little benefit" from the money and he saw no reason for imprisonment. He recommended she be given "an opportunity to remedy her life."

The woman's lawyer said every effort would be made to make restitution.

The woman had been in jail since her arrest by State Police last Christmas day. She had been held after she was unable to raise bond of $10,000.

Bandits Get $325 At Store

GAITHERSBURG, Md. — Two bandits, one with a pistol and the other with a pipe wrench, held up the Francis L. Harding grocery store two miles north of here last night and got $325.

Montgomery County Police said they were told one man, about 23 covered clerk Nicholas Nicholson with a .38 caliber revolver, while the other, about 37, held a wrench.

The store is located on Maryland 365.

Budget For University Up By 2 Million

Salary Increases For Faculty Are Included In Program

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — The University of Maryland came in for a whopping $26,229,960 slice of Gov. McKeldin's budget submitted to the Legislature yesterday.

The amount is nearly two million dollars more than the current university budget. In addition, McKeldin earmarked it for $2,296,900 of his capital improvements program, submitted separately.

Most of the budget increase would go for boosting faculty salaries, hiring 169 new employees and increasing operating expenses by $528,995.

McKeldin said he was including a $20,000 increase for physics "to allow support of the rapidly expanding research program," and $28,000 for the College of Arts and Sciences to provide the equipment for training students in telescopes.

Eventually, he said, the university will be using closed circuit television in its classrooms.

He recommended six new positions in the Engineering College to help handle its increased enrollment and approximately the same number of faculty additions for the College of Education.

Some For Baltimore

The professional schools in Baltimore were earmarked for increases totaling $583,329.

The university's $3,296,900 share of the long-range capital improvements program included $1,045,000 for purchase of government buildings on the campus to be used by animal sciences, instead of constructing a new building.

Another big slice is $1,000,000 earmarked for acquiring land for expansion of the Baltimore campus under a cooperative plan with the Baltimore Urban Renewal Agency and the federal government.

Most of the other expenditures are for extending and equipping dormitories and classroom buildings at College Park, in Baltimore and at Maryland State College in Princess Anne.

The appropriations for improvements at the Negro college in Princess Anne include $9,000 for renovation of Bird Hall and $16,000 to remodel the third floor of the Library Building.

Edward Himmelman, a Nova Scotia fisherman, has lived in recruitment District in Washington, his 90-foot boat for eight years.

The conference, Capt. Menges said, was held to discuss Marine damppness mildews his one good Reserve activities and outline suit which he wears when he goes ashore.

Ski Prospects Good At Davis

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Excellent ski prospects are in store for winter sports enthusiasts on the slopes around Davis this weekend, the Conservation Department said today.

The department said both Cabin Mountain and Weiss Knob have from 10 to 12 inches of hard-packed snow, with 11 to 14 inches of new powdered snow. There were some drifts up to 20 feet deep.

Temperature as of today hovered around 25 degrees. The forecast was for showers and more snow.

The Conservation Department said roads in the area had been well scraped, but snow tires or chains were recommended.

Prince Aly Khan Made Diplomat

KARACHI, Ind. — Playboy Prince Aly Khan became a diplomat today. Pakistan named him her ambassador to the United Nations.

Rumors that the "Golden Prince" would get the diplomatic post had been circulating in Karachi, and a newspaper predicted yesterday the appointment wouldn't be long in coming.

The son of the infamous late Aga Khan III was not believed to be a citizen of Pakistan. But Aly's son, Karim, the present Aga, is spiritual leader of the Ismaili Muslim sect, which has many followers in Pakistan.

Conference Attended By Marine Officers

Capt. Billy C. Menges, commanding officer of the local Marine Corps Reserve unit, and Capt. Richard V. Molesky, inspector-instructor of the unit, attended a recent conference of the Fifth Marine Reserve and Reserve District in Washington, his 90-foot boat for eight years.

The conference, Capt. Menges said, was held to discuss Marine damppness mildews his one good Reserve activities and outline suit which he wears when he goes ashore.

Budget For University Up By 2 Million

Salary Increases For Faculty Are Included In Program

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — The University of Maryland came in for a whopping $26,229,960 slice of Gov. McKeldin's budget submitted to the Legislature yesterday.

The amount is nearly two million dollars more than the current university budget. In addition, McKeldin earmarked it for $2,296,900 of his capital improvements program, submitted separately.

Most of the budget increase would go for boosting faculty salaries, hiring 169 new employees and increasing operating expenses by $528,995.

McKeldin said he was including a $20,000 increase for physics "to allow support of the rapidly expanding research program," and $28,000 for the College of Arts and Sciences to provide the equipment for training students in telescopes.

Eventually, he said, the university will be using closed circuit television in its classrooms.

He recommended six new positions in the Engineering College to help handle its increased enrollment and approximately the same number of faculty additions for the College of Education.

Some For Baltimore

The professional schools in Baltimore were earmarked for increases totaling $583,329.

The university's $3,296,900 share of the long-range capital improvements program included $1,045,000 for purchase of government buildings on the campus to be used by animal sciences, instead of constructing a new building.

Liquor Stores Plan Closing

CHARLESTON, S. C. — The State Liquor Control Commission's office issued a reminder today that all state liquor stores and agencies will be closed for two holidays this month.

They are: Lincoln's birthday on Feb. 12, and Washington's birthday on Feb. 22.

State observance of these two anniversaries as legal holidays was authorized in a 1955 act of the Legislature.

Florida Regains Balmy Weather

MIAMI, Fla. (P)—Tourists shed their top coats and went back to the beaches today as warm sunshine returned to south Florida in the wake of some of the coldest weather in memory.

It was a balmy 63 at Miami early this morning after yesterday's high of 28 degrees, but other sections of the state were slower thawing out. Ocala had a low of 34 and Jacksonville reported 44, as did Sarasota, on the Gulf Coast.

Realtor Indicted

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. — Charles G. Rhoads, former president of the Huntington Board of Realtors and the West Virginia Assn. of Realtors, has been indicted on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny.

Dr. Eye Named

WOODS HOLE, Mass. (P)—The Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution has announced the appointment as director of Dr. Paul M. Fye, associate technical director for research at the Naval Ordnance Laboratory at Silver Spring, Md., and consultant to the Navy's Polaris missile program.

To Seek Second Term

DOVER, Del. (P)—Delaware's lone congressman, Republican Harry G. Haskell, announced today he will seek a second term.

Clarksburg Sewage Rates Up For Study

New Rates Will Be Considered By PSC At Hearing Feb. 14

CHARLESTON, S. C. — A request by the city of Clarksburg for approval of new sewage rates comes up for Public Service Commission hearing next Friday, Feb. 14.

The petition also seeks issuance of a formal certificate to operate such service.

The proposed rates would be based on water consumption and would include a minimum of $1.95 a month or $3.90 per bimonthly. A three step scale would include charges of 45¢ cents per 100 cubic feet for the first 4,000 cubic feet, water used per month or 8,000 cubic feet per bimonthly; 36¢ cents per 100 for the next 16,000 or 32,000; and 23¢ cents per 100 for all over 20,000 or 40,000 cubic feet.

The certificate sought by the city also would permit extension additions to existing sewage facilities, as ordered by the State Water Commission. Clarksburg has financed past sewage service through an expenditure from its general fund but without charges to users.

The city has estimated that its new sewerage system projects will cost a total of $3,626,000. To be financed by issuance of $3,650,000 worth of revenue bonds. Annual operating cost of the completed system, including treatment facilities, are expected to be $83,000.

Grain Prices Mixed

CHICAGO, S. C. — Grain futures prices were mixed at the opening of the Board of Trade today.

Mrs. Curtis Kesner

KEYSER — Mrs. Sharlet Kesner, 22, wife of Curtis Kesner, RD 1, died Tuesday in Potomac Valley Hospital.

She was a daughter of James and Odessa (Smith) Saville.

Surviving, besides her husband and parents, are three children, Lawrence, DeVone S. and James R. Kesner; two brothers, James R. and Ronald L. Saville, and three sisters, Misses Narana N., and Wilma J. and Lottie L. Saville.

The body is at the Markwood Funeral Home where services were conducted this afternoon by Rev. A. S. A. Holsinger, pastor of Burlington Brethren Church. Interment was in Queens Point Cemetery.

Nathan Leopold Awaits Action On Parole Plea

STATEVILLE, Ill. (INS)—The latest plea for freedom by Nathan Leopold, thrill-slayer of 14-year-old Bobby Franks in 1924, was in the hands of the Illinois Parole Board today.

The 52-year-old Leopold, who has spent 33 years behind bars for "the crime that rocked the nation," told the five-man board at Stateville Penitentiary yesterday that he had been led into the slaying by Richard Loch, who was killed in a prison fight in 1926.

Leopold said that at 19 he was "an intelligent savage" with no moral sense and to some extent blamed this on the fact he had no normal teen-aged development because he had moved ahead intellectually of the companionship of older boys.

He also pleaded for parole as "an old man seeking a place to hide." Leopold added: "All I want is a corner to live quietly, modestly and atone for my crime."
